THE DESCENDANTS OF THOMAS HORTON
OF MILTON AND REHOBOTH, MASSACHUSETTS
VOLUME I, GENERATIONS 1-6

by Margaret R. Jenks and Frank C. Seymour

The first volume includes all of the records that had been found through 1983 for the descendants of Thomas and Sarah (-) Horton of Milton, Massachusetts, born with the Horton name, through the seventh generation.

Appendix A presents the English Ancestry of a Thomas Horton born about 1640, probably in Wales. Researched and written by Ruth Horton Metzler of Rochester, New York. This is a possible ancestry for Thomas Horton of Milton.

Appendix B presents the information collected on various Horton individuals and families the authors feel are probably descendants of Thomas and Sarah Horton.

The book contains 322 pages, illustrations, maps, and an index including over 3100 Horton names and 3800 other names.

FRANK CONKLIN SEYMOUR

Appleton, Wisconsin 1949

With deep sadness, I must report that Frank Conklin Seymour, my co-author for Volume I of this work, passed away quietly at his home in North Dartmouth, Massachusetts, on 15 January 1985, with his wife, Irene, and daughter at his side. Frank was eighty-nine years old. He became acquainted with many Hortons and Horton descendants while minister of the Dighton Congregational Church. The records he acquired at that time, and much correspondence since then, form the basis of this manuscript.

Frank was born in Waverly, Massachusetts, received a bachelor's degree from Harvard College in 1916, served from 1917 to 1919 as an ensign with Navy transport services, and earned a bachelor's degree in theology from Union Theological Seminary in 1922 and a master's degree from Massachusetts Agricultural College in Amherst in 1929.

He was minister of the North Congregational Church in Amherst and the Evangelical Congregational Church in Lancaster, served six years in Appleton and Tomahawk, Wisconson, and then to the Dighton Congregational Church, Dighton, Massachusetts.

Frank's real love was botany. He had been visiting associate research professor at the University of Florida in Gainesville, and a research assistant at the Missouri Botanical Garden at St. Louis. He wrote "Flora of Lincoln County, WI,""Flora of New England,""Flora of Vermont" and "A Checklist of Nicaraguan Plants."

At the time of his death, he was compiling data on Dighton families, now being completed by his beloved wife, Irene.

Frank is survived by his wife; two sons, Dr. Richard B. and Robert L.; two daughters, Nancy S. Wood and Catherine S. Nelson; five grandchildren; and two great grandchildren.

INTRODUCTION

Early in 1983, I realized Frank Seymour's health was failing and decided that it would be wise to divide the vast amount of data we had collected on the Hortons into several sections and publish the book in more than one volume.

At that point, I had most of the families through the sixth generation typed into the computer and decided this was a good stopping point. The balance of 1983 was spent preparing the index and the other special pages. The manuscript went to the printer on 28 December 1983 and in January 1984 the first books were in the mail. My decision to publish that part of the material has proved to be a wise one, as Frank's death came just one year after publication of the first volume.

As the book went to the printer, work began on the second volume. Computer technology allowed me to revise the 6th generation data to set up the 7th generation without retyping the long list of Horton ancestors for each family. The same process was repeated for each succeeding generation. Then began the long task of adding all of the family data.

Almost as fast as copies of Volume I went out, letters containing new data began to come in from those who had purchased the book or seen it in a library. Families of several more 4th, 5th, and 6th generation Hortons have been found and the data is presented in Appendix E.

I was fortunate to be able to spend some time in Salt Lake City at the Genealogical Society Library, where I extracted Suffolk County probate and land records and some other records. Later I spent a week at the Massachusetts Archives extracting Horton vital records for the period 1841-1890. In the week, I was able to only copy about one-third of the available records. These records are now on film, and either by renting the films at a local LDS branch library, or during several days in Salt Lake City on my move to Texas, I was able to obtain a nearly complete set of records. These records make up the majority of the material in Appendix D.

Appendix F continues the families found in Appendix B of the first volume. Some new data have been found on the previously published material and are in Appendix D. Isaac Horton, born about 1759 (p. 227) has been placed as 5.86. John Horton, b. ca 1761 (p.246), has been placed as 5.52. New data on the 5th and 6th generation descendants of Isaac and John will be found in Appendix E, and the 7th generation is continued in the body of this volume.

It is most fortunate that a few towns with large Horton populations, have their vital records published to a more recent date. Arnold's Rehoboth Vital Records go to 1897. There is an index to the East Providence vital records to 1946 with records to 1882 available on film. Providence has published a condensed copy of their records to 1945. Mrs. Frank Seymour obtained a manuscript copy of the Dighton vital records to 1980.

Much of this second volume is dependent on census records. It must be remembered that the census enumerator was paid by the number of names recorded. Often the writing was faint and nearly illegible, the spelling impossible, and the ages far from agreeing with other records. Although considered primary records, they are only as good as the information furnished to the enumerator. A few people have been found in more than one town, probably because of moving, others have not been found, possibly for the same reason.

The 1900 census has a complete soundex index. The soundex codes surnames of similar sound together, then lists them by first name. The code for Horton is H635. I have copied all the listings for Horton, Harton, and Horten for all of the United States. My listing includes the birth state, month, and year for each head of household and his wife, and I noted if there were children or other relatives in the home. The same data were copied for Hortons living in non-Horton homes.

All of these were entered into the computer, 10,500 in all, and sorted by state, county, and town. This has been a big help in locating relatives living near each other. Then the names were sorted by first name and birth year and a master index was produced, enabeling me to locate many Hortons who had moved to previously unknown towns or were stationed in far off military bases. After locating a probable descendant of Thomas Horton, I went back to the original census and copied the full data. Often knowing the birthplace of a child over 20 in 1900 has led me back to where the family lived in 1880 and earlier. Every descendant of Thomas Horton who could possibly have been alive in 1900 has been checked to this master index. However, several families have been very hard to find because the names were misspelled. One family was found under "Hawton". Many of the Irish used Harton or Horten. Time has not permitted searching all of the variant spellings.

The 1880 soundex only lists families with children age 10 or under. To date, there is no index for the 1860 and 1870 censuses. I have tried to locate many families living in smaller towns in these years, but large cities like Boston and Providence fill several rolls of film, and such general searches are impossible. There is an index for the 1850 census, and as many families as possible have been located at that time. I have been able to follow many families from 1850 to 1900 in the census. Except for Bristol Co. MA, no attempt has been made to search the 1910 census.

When a daughter married and died without known issue, all her data are given under her father, as in the first volume. However, since very little is known about the families of many of the married daughters, such data have been included in this volume. If she married a Horton, then her family is given under her husband's number. When large amounts of data have been collected on a daughter and her descendants, she is marked with a (+) and the name of her husband is given. I expect to publish these records in a third volume along with any additional Horton data that may be found. So, please continue to submit additional data on all of the descendants of Thomas Horton.

Some notes on using this book may be helpful. My numbering system is easily understood. The figure before the period represents the generation. The figure after the period is the number of the person in that generation. When a person's records are carried forward to the next generation, the numbers are preceded by a plus sign (+). Where there is a variation in data for the 7th generation from the first volume, the data in the second volume should be considered correct.

I wish to express a special thank you to all who have contributed to this second volume, and also for the many records that have been submitted on families of daughters that must be saved for the third volume.

The following have acted as compilers of various sections of the book, and will be happy to receive correspondence on their sections of the book.

7.0001c SAMUEL HORTON (Nehemiah 6.1, see Appendix E, 5.2; Jonathan 4.3, 3.2; John 2.2; Thomas 1.1) was b. ca 1806 VT; d. 1860+.
He m.(1) by 1833 an unknown wife if Dorinda's age is correct in 1850.
He m.(2) DORINDA, b. ca 1822 NY per 1850 census or 1812 NY per 1860 census; d. 1860+

Although I have no direct proof that Samuel was a son of Nehemiah, he was living near Nehemiah in Gerry, Chautauqua Co., NY from 1840 to 1860, and before 1840 Nehemiah had a male in his home the right age to be Samuel. In 1840 Samuel's family was: M 1 30/40; F 2 0/5, 1 5/10 (this prob. should have been Samuel Jr.), 1 20/30 with one in agriculture. Samuel's birth is given as VT in 1860 and his wife's age as 48 both probably correct, while in 1850 he was listed as b. NY and she only 28. Samuel probably had only one wife if the 1860 census is corret.

In 1860, Samuel was a farmer with $1500 real estate and $3000 personal property. There were no Hortons in the 1870 or 1880 Gerry census.

7.0001h CHARLES D. HORTON (Nehemiah 6.1, see Appenidx E, 5.2; Jonathan 4.3, 3.2; John 2.2; Thomas 1.1) was b. ca 1823 VT? (age 20/30 in 1840); d. 1850+.
He m. by 1837 PHILETIA, b. ca 1823 NY, age 15/20 in 1840; d. 1850+.

If their ages in the 1850 census were correct, they were very young when they had their first child, Daniel. Probably Daniel's age is wrong in 1850 and the 1840 census ages are correct. If Charles was b. in VT, it was before the 1820 census. In 1840, Charles was listed right after Nehemiah, so he was most likely Nehemiah's son. He was a farmer and in 1850 had $700 of real estate. The family was not in the 1860-1880 Gerry census.

Lovel served in the Civil War in the 27th Regt. Co. B, MA Vol. Inf., as a 2nd LT, age 38, a mechanic, commissioned and mustered 16 Oct. 1861, resigned and discharged 28 Feb. 1862. In his death record, he was called a "hotel keeper."

On William's death record his mother is given as Lucretia who was actually his aunt/step-mother. Since his own mother had died when William was about 16, whoever gave the information may have only known Lucretia as his mother.

Mary Ballister's obituary reported she had been a member of the Old South Church in Boston before her marriage. When she married William Horton, they settled in Brattleboro and she joined the Congregational Church there. By 1840 they moved to Hartford, VT and lived there till his death in 1864. After William's death, Mary lived with her daughter, Mary, in Windsor, VT. She was survived by four children: Mary Thompson, Ballister, Charles of Chicago and Luther of NY.

They were buried in the new section of the White River Junction Cemetery.

In 1963 Rufus E. Horton wrote to FCS listing four children for Henry and Ida: Lena, Hattie, Mabel b. 11 April 1898 and Henry Asel b. 21 Dec. 1902. The 1900 Clarksbury, MA census shows that Henry had been married only 1 year and Ida had been married 13 years and crossed off to one year and that she had had 8 children. If they had been married only 1 year, then all of the children listed as Horton, first 5 b. NY, last 3 b. MA, father b. MA and mother b. NY for all of them, were really Shortman children. They were: FREDERICK, son, b. Aug. 1882 age 19; EVERETT, son, b. May 1884 age 16; HARRIET, dau. b. Aug. 1886 age 14; WILLIAM, son, b. 1888; IDA, dau., b. Jan. 1891 age 9; GEORGE, son, b. He m. 27 April 1874 Cheshire, MA VR, HATTIE M./E. FULLER, b. May 1858 Savoy, MA; d. 1900+; dau. of John and Samantha (-) Fuller.

Two errors in the primary records have caused great confusion between the family of Allen and his brother Albert. Fortunately, enough evidence has been found in the MA vital records to properly list this family. In 1880 the family was listed in the Cheshire census as: Albert 28 b. MA (This should read Allen, as his brother Albert had died in 1866.); Harriet 22, Mildred, dau. 4 b. MA and Lucy, dau. 3. The birth record for Millie P. shows her as a daughter of Allen and Hattie M.; yet in the marriage record (Pittsfield, MA VR) she was listed as Mildred, daughter of Albert and Hattie (Fuller) Horton.

In 1900 they lived at 159 Linden St., Pittsfield, MA. Allen was a carpenter and Hattie a dressmaker. Their daughter Mildred, her husband and son lived with them. Hattie said she had had 3 children and all were alive.

7.0122 WALTER SHURTS HORTON (Nathaniel B. 6.62; Stephen 5.25; Comfort 4.7; Jonathan 3.2; John 2.2; Thomas 1.1) was b. 3 Dec. 1857 Delavan, IL; d. 1935+.
He m. 25 May 1882 in the Presbyterian Church, Delavan, IL, ALICE CARRIE JONES, b. 13 July 1860 Havana, IL; d. 9 Aug. 1931; dau. of Hiram C. Jr. and Sarah Virginia (Rupert) Jones, granddaughter of Hiram C. and Diadema (-) Jones of Pekin, IL.

Walter S. Horton said of his family, "All of the children of grandfather Stephen Horton had substantially the same old-fashioned Yankee characteristics - conservative, self-reliant, industrious and saving. Nathaniel, my father, had those traits in high degree. He was independent, exceedingly industrious and honorable in his dealings, treating others fairly and demanding the same kind of treatment from them. Part of his life was given to travel and adventure. He visited many countries when to do so was unusual. He had had so much adventure that he seemed to have no sense of fear.

"My maternal grandparents had seven children, Elizabeth Ann, Mary Ann, Christiann, Selinda Ann, Emily Adeline (my mother), Joseph Nitzer and Wesley. Elizabeth Ann married Jacob Huffman of Bureau County, Illinois, and they had two children, Catherine and Peter, who lived for a time in Princeton, Illinois and afterwards moved to Ames, Iowa. Mary Ann married Jacob Harris of Bureau County. They had five children, George, Elizabeth, Carrie, Isaac W. and Charles. Of those children, George and Charles died without leaving children. Elizabeth married a member of the Seaton family, which was quite promi-nent in Bureau County, and no doubt has descendants still living there. Carrie married a Mr. Hosier and had one child, a daughter, Alta Hosier, who spent part of one summer with my family at Delavan Lake, Wisconsin. Carrie Hosier was recently living in or near Los Angeles, California. The son, Isaac W. Harris, moved near Stella, Nebraska and was, I am informed, quite successful and prominent. He, no doubt, left descendants, but I have no reference to them. Selinda Ann married Charles Forsythe and had a large family, but they are so scattered that I have no reference to any of them except Richard (Dick) Forsythe, who lived in Whittier, California. Wesley Shurts was a school teacher. He married and had two daughers, both of whom are deceased. Joseph Nitzer Shurts was twice married and left seven children, Elizabeth, now Mrs. W.J. Culbertson of Delavan, Illinois, a child of the first marriage, and Fred, Bruce, Kate, Annie, Frank and Mark, children of the second marriage. Mrs. Lizzie Culbertson has two sons, William E. (now Mayor of Delavan) and Colonel Albert Culbertson, also a resident of Delavan. Of the later six children of Joseph Nitzer Shurts, Fred, Bruce, Kate and Anne are deceased, Frank lives in California and Mark in Arkansas. The daughter Kate married Albert Brenneman and they live on a farm east of Delavan. She left three children, Emily, now Mrs. Milo Miller, living three miles east of Pekin, Illinois, Mildred, a teacher in the public schools of Pekin, and Jacob, who lives on a farm east of Delavan. Kate's husband, Albert, is living with his daughter Emily. Anne Shurts married a Mr. Sizer and left her surviving two sons, Donald and Albert, of Champaign, Illinois, and Dorothy, a teacher, of Pawnee, Illinois.

"While my maternal grandmother, Anne Aller Shurts, had many other descendants, eighty-seven in all at the time of her death at the age of eighty-nine years on October 28, 1884, I have no record furnishing reliable information concerning them.

"Emily Shurts Horton, my mother, was a worthy helpmate of an industrious man like my father. She too was industrious, clear headed and capable, all of which faculties she retained until her death...

"I was born on a farm north of Delavan...where my parents lived until 1869, when they moved to Delavan. For several years I went to a country school more than two miled distant from our country home. Later I attended a private school in Delavan, conducted by a Miss Hopkins. After the removal of the family to Delavan, I attended the public schoold there until 1874 when, in order to prepare for college, I went for one year to Lincoln College at Lincoln, Illinois, and for a year to the Preparitory School of Northwestern University at Evanston, Illionis.

"In the fall of 1876 I entered the College of New Jersey, now the University of Princeton, from which I graduated with an A.B. degree in the spring of 1880. During my years at Princeton I gave considerable time to athletics - baseball, rowing and football. In my senior year I captained the University baseball nine, one of the strongest college nines of that time. In the fall of 1880...I entered the Law School of the University of Michigan, from which I graduated in the sprnig of 1882. While there I was a member of the University football team...and was captain of it during my second year. After my graduation from Law School...I was admitted to practice law both in Michigan and Illinois. ...about April 1, 1882 I entered the law office of Stevens and Lee...of Peoria, Illinois.

"...Immediately after our marriage we came to Peoria, Illinois, where we lived until November 1909 - for two years at 1215 North Monroe Street, for sixteen years at 705 North Jefferson Street, and for nine years at 118 (now 126) Moss Avenue.

"During those years in Peoria, I was engaged in the general practice of law, having become a member of the firm of Stevens and Lee on January 1, 1883, under the firm name of Stevens, Lee and Horton. In 1889 John S. Lee died and the firm name was changed to Stevens and Horton. About 1893 Mr. W.T. Abbott became a member of our firm and the name was again changed.... I entered the Law Department of the Illinois Central Railroad Company July 1, 1909. I was General Attorney for that company...until January 1, 1918, when I was made General Solicitor and given charge of the legal work and law department of the railroad under government operation. Upon the return of the railroad to private operation March 1, 1920, I was made General Counsel of the company and so continued until January 1, 1928, when I retired....

"My family moved to Chicage in November, 1909, where we lived for about 20 years at 5419 Hyde Park Boulevard.

"In March, 1929...[we] returned to Peoria.... We made our home at 330 Moss Avenue, where I now live. In the summer of 1929, Mrs. Horton and I made a long deferred trip to Europe, visiting France, Switzerland, Italy, Germany and England.

"Our married life continued for almost fifty years. We had three children.... My wife...whom there could be no better or devoted wife and mother.... Inasmuch as she was a most important factor in whatever success I may have achieved, this narrative would not be complete withour some explanation of her ancestors....

"Her father, Hiram C. Jones Jr. was born in New Hampshire, the son of Hiram C. and Diadema Jones. His parents moved to Pekin, Illinois in an early day, where his father died.... Diadema Jones, married Judge Harriot, Judge of the Circuit Court at Pekin.... [They] were buried in the cemetery on the southerly side of Pekin....[Later the stones were moved to the new Pekin cemetery.]

"My wife's father, Hiram C. Jones Jr., and her mother, Sarah Virginia Rupert, of Louisville, Kentucky, were married in Pekin, Illinois November 1, 1854. They later moved to Havana, Illinois where he engaged in the mercantile business. Still later they moved to Chicago, Illinois, where for many years he was with the wholesale house of J.V. Farwell & Co. They had three children: Eugene R. born August 3, 1855; Edward H., born March 23, 1858; and Alice Carrie.... Eugene R. Jones married Alice Hayes of Bloomington, Illinois on December 21, 1881. They had one son, Leslie H. Jones, born March 28, 1883. [Of New Haven, CT 1935.] Edward H. Jones married Edith Olive Eaton on October 1, 1885. They had one son, Rupert Forest, born August 26, 1886. [Of Dayton, OH 1935.]

"Hiram C. Jones Jr. [m.(2) and had a son] Paul Jones, born September 24, 1879 who as a child and young man was a member of my family. He married Mary Wilson of Clarion, Pennsylvania. [Living in 1935 at 900 Powell St., San Francisco.] They have four children: Paul Jr., born January 22, 1908; Helen Wilson, born October 16, 1908 [In 1935 of Denver.]; Walter Gordon, born January 17, 1912 [1935 a student at Univ. CO.]; and Mary Victoria, born May 26, 1916.

"Sarah Virginia Rupert Jones, my wife's mother, was the daughter of Elon W. and Charlotte Van Buskirk Rupert of Louisville, KY. Charlotte Van Buskirk was a daughter of Cornelius Van Buskirk and his wife, Sarah Nelson Van Buskirk...of Louisville.

"During my life in Peoria, from 1882 to 1908, I took an active interest in politics, though I never sought or held any public office other than to serve on [one] Commission....

"While during my years as a lawyer considerable important litigation was placed in my care, the most important was that between the State of Illinois and the Illinois Central Railroad Company commenced in the spring of 1907, which involved the meaning of certain provisions of the charter of that company and the practices of the company under it....

"In closing this outline, for the information of my sons and their children, I emphasise the importance of keeping in touch with relatives. Though I have failed in that respect, as shown by the very general character of the information given and the great number of relatives about whom I have no knowledge, it would be a great satisfaction to me to know them and have the picture of closer relationship. It all shows how quickly a new generation can lose sight, not only of those who have gone before, but of those who, in youth, may have been playmates.

"And as this outline of family history is for my sons, it may be proper to add a word of advice, drawn from a long life. You come from an ancestry that taught and practiced self reliance. They were industrious and unswervingly honest - two chief characteristics toward success. With those traits much can be accomplished, - without them, nothing. I have tried to remember those principles, and to them attribute whatever success I may have achieved. May you remember them."

With best wishes,

May 6, 1935.

On the birth certificate of their son, Harold Marcus, the surname was spelled "Hawton". MA VR 306:285.

They lived in Lancaster, Clinton and Leominster, MA. In 1880 Marcus was living in Lancaster, MA with three children. They were still there in 1900 when he was listed as a wheelright. They had been married 27 years and Emma said she had had 4 children and they were all alive. Their son Harold was a student at Williams College, Williamstown, MA in 1900, while Henry N. and Rena E. were still at home.

Marcus A. kept an order book (in the possession of Wm. Frost) in which he had drawings of some of the wagons and sleighs he built, including a doctor's covered sleigh, a fish cart, a 10-foot-long wagon for Biglow Carpet Co. of Clinton and othera. In the back of the notebook was a list of birthdays of his siblings and children. Also listed were Eddie A. Mason b. 11 Sept. 1874 and Edith K. Mason b. 28 May 1878 (prob. a nephew and niece).

In his last years Marcus was blind "but could tell coins by feeling them." William Frost, his grandson, remembers that Marcus died quietly in his sleep. There was a big snow storm and when the hearse with the body left the house it got stuck at the corner of Summer Pleasant Streets and had to be shovelled out. 7.0216 FREDERICK S. HORTON (Dennis 6.110; Abel 5.50; Nathaniel 4.18; John 3.3, 2.2; Thomas 1.1) was b. 1828-29 VT; d. 23 Nov. 1875 age 47-8-6 of catarrh, Pittsfield, Lorain Co., OH court records, bur. Pittsfield East Cemetery.
He m. 15 May 1854 Summit Co., OH, JULIA A. SIMMONS; b. April 1830 NY; d. 24 March 1917 age 86 y, Pittsfield, OH; dau. of Enoch W. and Mariah (Lee) Simmons, and sister of Louise (Simmons) Rounds, wife of Lucius A. Rounds.

A deed dated 15 May 1855 to Frederick S. Horton to complete a contract for 180 acres in Pittsfield twp., said conract having been originally entered into by Dennis Horton and William P. Horton (7.0213) as purchasers. The deed stated that Dennis and William had previously assigned their interest to Frederick. (Lorain Co. deeds 7:282)

Frederick had other land in Pittsfield twp., one from Luther M. Tuttle in 1866. (Ibid. 23:575) (Luther M. Tuttle m. 24 Jan. 1850 Almira Horton.)

On 24 Oct. 1860, Frederick S. Horton and his wife, Julia A. Horton, signed a life lease on 53 acres in Pittsfield twp., to his father, Dennis Horton.

Josiah Mason mentions that in his youth he visited the old Horton homestead and Martha and Ulysses who was called "Yula". He got the idea that the family fell on hard times afer the death of Frederick S. in 1875 and much of the land had to be sold. This may explain why there are few gravestones for the family. Another deed shows some land they bought and could not pay for being resold in 1887.

They were in the 1860 Pittsfield twp. census with the following family: Frederick 31 farmer, b. VT; Julia 30, b. NY; Caroline 7, Sarah 6, Martha 3, and Ida 2 m.; listed right after Dennis. In 1870 the family was: Frederick 41; Julia A. 40; Caroline 16; Sarah M. 14; Martha 13; Florence M. 10; F.W. 5; Ulysses Colfax 1. In 1880 the family was: Julia 51, farmer; Sarah 24; Mariah 22; Florence 20; William 15 and Ulysses 10. In the 1900 Pittsfield twp. census the family was: Julia b. April 1830 NY, widow who had had 7 children, with 5 alive; L. Martha b. Nov. 1857 OH, num., seamstress; William F. b. April 1865 OH, unm., farmer; and Ulysses b. Oct. 1868 OH, unm., farmer. The family was buried in the Pittsfield East Cemetery.

In 1900, Rollin, a dentist, lived at 84 White Ave., Cleveland, OH in a mortgaged home. The family included wife Abby F. who had had 3 children with 2 alive; dau. Mary H.; son Charles D. and his wife Marie H.

Records show him only as Kenry K, but his middle name was probably Kinney, his mother's maden name. He was in the 1840 Boston census with 2M 0/5, 1M 30/40, 2F 15/20, 1F 30/40, 1F 70/80. In the 1850 Boston Ward 9 census the family was: Henry K. 42 b. ME merchant; wife and children all b. They were buried in the Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, MA.

Henry K. wrote his very long will at West Roxbury, Norfolk Co., MA, dated 10 June 1865, and proved 4 Nov. 1867. He gave to wife Helen Maria his dwelling house for her natural life, but if he does not own a dwelling house, then she is to have $35,000 for the purchase of one. He also gave her all the household goods, clothing, horses, carriages, etc. She was to receive an annual income of $5000, tax free, to be paid quarterly giving directions as to how this was to be done.

He gave to his sister, Mrs. Almira Dorr $2000 in one year from his decease.

He gave to his nieces, Minnie Whiting and Annie W. Whiting, daughters of his sister Mrs. Mary Ann Whiting, $1000 payable in one year from his decease.

The residue of the estate, real, personal and mixed, wherever situated, including interest in any firm or partmership, etc. to his executors to be set up in trust for his survivors in the following express trusts.

That his interest in any partnership may continue for up to 2 years, except the sum of $100,000 is to be invested for his wife as directed above and $35,000 for her home if there is none.

Son Henry K., Jr. shall be supported and educated till he is 21, at the expense of the estate, not exceeding $1000 per year.

He then gave to his children, Charles P. Horton; William L. Horton; Mary W. Bradlee, wife of Frederick W. Bradlee; Fannie G. Horton; Helen Sophia Horton; Kate Barnes Horton and Henry K. Horton, Jr., the sum of $10,000 each, payable to adult sons and married daughters as soon after his decease as the interests of the estate will justify, or to unmarried daughters at marriage or age 24, and to minor son at age 24, including the interest earned by these sums, etc.

The residue of the estate to be kept in tact during his wife's lifetime, etc. The minor children to receive $1200 each year.

Upon his wife's decease, the estate was to be divided among the living children, and the issue of deceased children. If there are still minor children, then their share to be held as given above.

Having advanced the sum of $20,000 to son William L., any amount unpaid, to be deducted from his share.

The executors were given instructions on how to close the estate when the above bequests had been met. He nominated and appointed his son Charles P. Horton, and Josiah Bardwell and Dwight Foster of Boston to be trustees. Witnessed by Wm. Parsons, Jr., I.H. Campbell and F.T. Dwinell.

He wrote a codicil to the will, now a resident of Boston, Suffolk Co., but temporarily dwelling in Nahant.

He changed the bequest to his sister, Mrs. Almira Dorr, to $4000. He revoked the bequest to his nieces, and gave to their mother, his sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Whiting, $1000. Then he gave to his sister, Mrs. Fanny Ripley, wife of C.G. Ripley, Esq. $1000, payable in one year. He then changes his directives as to how the advnaced $20,000 to son William was to be handled. The property was in Colorado.

He gave the home on Arlington St. in Boston to his wife for her life. However she died at 146 Barlboro St. He then revoked his son as a trustee and appointed Benjamin E. Bates of Boston in his place. In all other respects, the original will was in effect. Signed 5 Sept. 1867. Witnessed by Leslie P. Codman, A. Laurence Mason and Edward R. Dalton.

Henry K. Horton was a merchant. The executors bond was posted on 4 Nov. 1867 by Josiah Bardwell, Dwight Foster and Benjamin E. Bates. His inventory totaled $165,112 and included a house and lot on Arlington St., Boston valued at $63,500 and the balance of the estate was in various stocks.

On 13 Oct. 1869 Charles P. Horton of Boston petitioned to be guardian of his brother Kenry K. Horton.

This is close to where Benjamin's brother Darius (7.0259) This Benjamin J. had a dau. He m.(2)? 2 Aug. 1868 EMMA J. PENNO, b. ca 1851; d. 12 March 1869 age 18 y. PVR.

I have been unable to locate Arial B. in the 1850 census. There was a Urial Horton in the Ward 4, 1850 Providence census. A close examination of the handwriting on the census page shows that it was intended as a "U" and not an "A". However, this may be the way the enumerator understood the name. All of the family was b. in RI. Urial was 35, Elisa 30, Esther 9; Pena 4 (female), Para 3 (female), and Mary 2.
RST added two more children to this family, Emma J. b. 1861, d. 12 March 1869 and Frank P. b. 1869, d. 30 July 1869. I have found following four entries in the index to the Providence VR's for an Ariel P. Was the P. an error for B? Ariel P. m. 2 Aug. 1868 Emma J. Penno. (PVR 9:110) Emma J., wife of Ariel P., d. 12 March 1869 age 18 y. (Ibid. 12:99) (The date RST gave as the death of dau. Emma J.) Frank P., son of Arial P. and Emma J. was b. 15 Jan. 1869 (Ibid.), Frank P. son of Ariel P. d. 30 July 1869 age 6 m. (Ibid. 12:114) (One of the chidren listed by RST for Ariel B.) It is quite possible the full vital records would solve the problem.

In the 1850 Rehoboth census the family was: Horace D., mason, age 25; Martha G. 26 b. RI; Nathan B. 5; Alphonso 3; Martha E. 1; and Mary West, 51. In the 1860 Seekonk census, the family was: Horace D. 35, mason; Martha F. 36 b. RI; Nathan B. 15; Alonzo (sic) 12 b. RI; Martha 11; Phebe S. 9; Preston W. 5; and Horace G. 11 m.

He served in the Civil War for nearly 3 years in the 2nd Regt, Co., C. RI Vol. Inf. and was a prisoner in Libby Prison.

In his youth, he was a blacksmith, later becoming a mason. When they moved to Providence, he was a foreman for Ellery Millard, a contractor, until retirment.

In her late years, Martha lived at 658 Chalkstone Avenue, in Providence. In 1900 Martha was a widow living with her daughter Phebe and said she had had 8 children and 3 were alive. The family was buried in the North Swansea Cemetery.

In the 1900 Rehoboth census, he was listed as a meat peddler, and she said she had not had children. He ran a retail meat business for 17 years, then accepted a government position. About 1893 he was elected a member of the board of selectmen and assessors and overseers of the poor. He held these offices about 11 years. He worked to secure for the town, a state highway, electric street railway and the free delivery of mail. He had the pleasure of riding on the first electric car from Taunton through Rehoboth to the state line. In 1902 he was a candidate for the MA Legislature, but was defeated. Henrietta was a school teacher. In the 1910 Rehoboth census, he was 44, a mail carrier, Henrietta E. was 45 and said she had not had children. Her mother, Eliza A. Barney, 68, b. VT lived with them. They share a gravestone in the North Swansea cemetery with her parents, Henry W. Barney, 3 Feb. 1831 - 12 Nov. 1900, Eliza A. Kellogg, wife, 2 March 1842 - 30 Oct. 1919.

He was a Baptist minister and married many of the Horton family.

They were in the 1840 Rehoboth census, both age 20/30. In the 1850 Taunton census, the family was: Josephus W. 34 b. RI, with $350 real estate; Anna A. 32; Emily A. 9; Horace L. 7; Sophia W. 5; Georgiana W. 3, wife and children b. MA. In the 1860 Swansea census the family was: Josephus W. 43 Baptist clergyman, $300 personal property, b. RI; Ann A. 42; Emily A. 19; Horace L. 17; Sophia W. 15; Georgianna W. 13; and Harriet N. 7.

The birth dates for George James and Georgiana W. are impossible. George James was not in the 1850 census, so if they were twins, he had died before 1850, however, her birth was not recorded in Taunton. Her gravestone gives her name as "Georgie W."

On 4 June 1875 bond was posted by Emeline B. Horton of Providence, Ira S. Baker and Nelson O. Baker of Rehoboth as guardians of Horace E.L. Horton. Emeline B. Horton was made guardian of Horace E.L., b. 17 Aug. 1864, of Providence, minor child of Horace L. Horton, late of Providence and Emeline B. Horton.

Emeline B. Horton wrote her will 28 July 1885, and after the usual instructions, she gave to Esik H. Pirce $1800 for the benifit of her son Horace E.L. Horton to be paid for 3 years at $600 per year in 3 payments of $200 each for his education.

She geve to son Horace E.L. Horton for benifit of grandson Bertie Wales, $200 for a scholarship in Bryant and Stratton Commercial College for that purpose only, and if he dosn't go to college, then the money to son Horace; and another $500 for Bertie Wales to be paid at age 25 with interest, but if he dies or becomes dissipated or reckless, the money to Horace.

To Horace E.L. for the benifit of son-in-law Alfred Wales for a home in the old man's home if needed and for no other purpose, if he dosn't go to said home, the money to Horace. [This is a strange bequest, as Alfred Wales was only about 40 at the time. The will was written soon after her daughter's death.]

To the First Christian Church and Society of Rehoboth, Oak Swamp, $100 for the support of the Gospel.

To son Horace E.L. the residue of the estate, both real and personal for his sole use and disposal.

Edward McCabe was to be executor. Signed 28 July 1885 by Emeline B. Horton, witnessed by Nancy J. Pierce, Lloyd B. Pierce and Nancy L. Pierce. Proved 11 Nov. 1889.

He served in New Orleans during his first enlistment. During his second enlistment, he was in command when taken prisoner near Petersburg, VA and was held in Libby prison.

I quote from the History of Attleboro: "The following are his own words describing the horrors of Libby [prison]: 'Pen never can write the whole truth, and if it could be told, no one could believe that it was possible for men to survive it, or possible that any one in the 19th century could be guilty of such barbarities.' Again his own words are given, describing his feelings when once again under the Union flag: 'I can never forget that day, never, never, never. No one that has not experienced the same sensations can know aught of the peculiar emotions and thoughts that came in throngs in seeing and knowing that once more I was under the Star Spangled Banner. Under their influence I wrote this letter to my family from the deck of the flag-of-truce boat, where each of us was handed a sheet of paper and envelope. My family had not heard from me for five months, and the newspapers had reported me dead: 'On board God's flag-of-truce boat, James River, Feb. 22, 1865. Dear Wife,- Out of the jaws of death, out of the gates of hell. Once more in the land of the living. Well. Love to all. Everett.' After a 30 day furlough, he rejoined his regiment in VA on the day Petersburgh was captured, was ordered to Washington, DC until discharge."

On his return, he settled in Providence and was in the wholesale grocery business. After the death of his brother, Edwin J., he took over his business in Attleboro.

He served in the MA Legislature, both House and Senate and many public offices in Attleboro. His picture is in "Biographical Records of Bristol Co.", 1899, 2:735-39.

On 15 May 1874, he was made guardian of his daughter, Mary E., so that he could sell some of her real estate for her maintenance. This was a half part of the homestead estate of Jessie R. Carpenter, deceased of Attleboro, plus a 20 acre wood lot and a swamp lot. Jessie L. Carpenter offered $2000 for the said land, and the sale was completed 30 May 1874.

They were in the 1870 Attleboro census, he a grocery salesman with $2500 real estate and $750 personal property, Mary A. 30 and Mary E. 8. In the 1880 Attleboro census, he was a wholesale grocer with 2 children. In 1900 they lived on Pleasant St., Attleboro and he was listed as a manufacturer of jewlery. Eliza said she had had 2 children and only 1 was alive. Gertrude was at home.

On 27 Nov. 1982 the Sun Chronicle ran a picture of the people on the reviewing stand 27 June 1906 in front of the public library being constructed in Attleboro. Major E.S. Horton was standing in the center front.

7.0509 JOHN HORTON (Robert 6.277; Stutely 5.136, Isaiah 4.36; Hezekiah 3.6; John 2.2; Thomas 1.1) was b. Aug. 1826 NS per 1900 Stonington, ME census; d. 1 Jan. 1907 age 80-4-16 of bronchial pneumonia, West Stonington, ME VR, married, a ship carpenter.
He m. ca 1855 MARGARET ANN KIRBY, b. Dec. 1837 Cape Canso, NS; d. 1907+; dau. of John C. and Mary Ann (-) Kirby.

Guysborough S.& E. said he married Ann Kirby and moved to the states. That John of the ME census listed here is the same man in proven in the ME VR's. When son Samuel died, his parents were listed as John of Deer Isle, seaman and M. Kirby. Then when son George married his parents were listed as John of Deer Isle, mariner, and Margaret A. Carbey (sic) of Deer Isle, b. Canso, NS.

In the 1860 Deer Island, Hancock Co., ME census, John was a fisherman, age 36 b, NS with $125 real estate and $300 personal property. His wife, Margaret A., was 29 b. NS and they had a daughter, Mary E. 5 m. b. ME. In the 1870 Deer Isle census, John Horton 43 b. NS was a carpetner with $100 real estate. His wife was Margaret 37 b. NS. Both said their parents were of foreign birth. They had 3 children, all b. ME: Samuel R. 8, Thomas B. 5 and Willie W. 2. In the 1880 Deer Isle ceusus, John was 52, b. ME of parents b. NS, a fisherman and Margaret was 46, b. ME of parents b. NS. (Note that in 1870 and 1900, obviously this same family, show John and Margaret b. NS.) The family was: Samuel 17 ME, Thomas B. 15, Willie W. 12, George E. 9 and Edward Archabald, nephew, 16, ME of ME parents (prob. error). The four young men, except George, were fisherman. John's sister Mary (7.0510) married Isaac Archibald and Edward was probably their son, another indication that I have the right John here. Isaac and Mary Archibald were not living on Deer Isle in 1870 or 1880. By 1900, John had moved to Stonington, ME. He was a carpenter, b. Aug. 1826 NS of NS parents and came to the states in 1852; and Margaret, b. Dec. 1837 NS of NS parents, said she came in 1854. Margaret said she had had 6 children with 3 alive, and only Thomas B. at home.

Bertha Isabel Scott, 1871, 1881 NS census, land records, Miller Book, film of births and marriages 1875

The following essay was written by Bertha Isabel Scott, granddaughter of George and Margaret (Simpson) Horton. Although the Simpson Family History is not directly a part of the Horton story, I am including it here as it is most interesting account of life in the last century.

Sveral short passages have been removed. In the first section of the Horton marrative, Miss Scott said that the Horton's were Loyalists, while in truth, the family moved to Nova Scotia long before the Revolution for economic and religeous reasons. If they were on the list of Loyalists, it was because they remained loyal. She also tells of five brothers from London. Isaiah did take five or six sons to Nova Scotia, but they were from the Bristol Co, MA and RI. Then there is a story about a lost inheritance, left behind in London, and sending money to help obtain their share. I have heard this story in other families, and have been told it was a scam or con-game pulled at that time.

This outline of the Miller family should help in following the story.

ALEXANDER MILLER m. SARAH WESSON, the great-great grandparents of Bertha Isabel Scott.

Alexander Miller was a freeholder of Ballymene, Co. Aantrim, Ireland. He had an uncle, Daniel Miller, and adopted his nephew, Andrew Miller. One of his five younger daughters married Mr. Kerr or Carr and moved to Australia.

"It is not my purpose to write a history, nor to trace family trees. The fragments which I shall set down are for Ourselves, and for those who in time shall take our places, and who may like to know something of the intimate and personal things concerning our people....

"I shall write about my four grandparents. What I shall write is of my own knowledge and what I have been told directly. At the very best, a little record, such as I shall set down, must be incomplete, but to the best of my knowledge, it is accurate.

Bertha Isabel Scott.

- SIMPSON -

"I shall write first about Grandma Horton. She was with us the longest time. During her last years, her thoughts turned ever back to other days - to her childhood, and the young years, and she would so often speak of little things belonging to those days. She had a very tender memory of her mother. Her father died when she was five. She could just remember being lifted up to kiss him. She treasured the things her mother used to tell them about the beautiful home across the sea, in Ireland. One evening I said, "Grandma, tell me some little things to write down, so that I can "remember" too." So she told me once more, as though the memory had been her own, of her grandfather Miller, and his wife, Sarah Wesson, and their family of girls - of the great love of their father and mother - and of her own brothers and sisters, and so on, in fragments, and at different times. I have not been much concerned with dates, having been always more interested in the stories. Great Great Grandfather, Alexander Miller was a freeholder in County Antrim. He had a large estate near Ballymene. There was a dairy, and many horses - also a large tannery from which he supplied the journeymen shoe-makers whom he sent out.

"Great-Great Grandmother was said to have been exceedingly capable and a true helper. She used to ride to market on a big grey horse. They made a point of observing the holidays with the old customs. One strange custom was "Winning the Churn". After harvesting, they had a celebration, ("Halloween" perhaps). They used to bring out the great churm of heavy cream, which was churned until the butter "Broke". Then the servants endeavored to see which could drink the most - the lucky one, "Winning the Churn.

"In religeon, they were firm Presbyterians, with a touch of the bitterness of the Antrim Prostestants, the times, (following the Persecutions) and the temper of the people, precluding any other kind. Besides, the family had been touched.. Great Great Grandfather's uncle, Daniel Miller, "Uncle Denny" suffered death at the hands of the "Persecutors." They tied him to his cart-tail (which seems to have been a favorite method) and beat him to death. They gave him chances to recant, but he truly belonged to the great army of those who died for conscience' sake.

"Side by side with this were stories of the faries who lived in an old ruin near their home. Old people living there used to tell of the little people borrowing from their pantry, and never failing to return what they had taken. Indeed one of the aunts was thought to have had a gift of being able to see the faries, and once, at least, saw them dancing in the moonlight! This was in accord with the beliefs and fancies of the time.

"Grandma kept some of her mother's old world words and phrases. Always, a dainty baby girl was a "London Doll", a fine straight boy, a "sodger", and a fine lady "Lady Bandon."

"Grandma's mother was one of seven daughters. As there was no son, they adopted and brought up as their own, a nephew, Andrew Miller. The first little Nancy died. Then came in order, Jean, (Grandma's mother) Maria, Betsy, Isabel, Margaret Ann, and another Nancy, the one who used to see faries. One of these sisters married a Mr. Kerr (or Carr), and went to Austraila to live. Each daughter received her "fortune" as she left home, L600, I think it was. Great Grandmother was the first to leave them. She was only 16, but she and young Robert Simpson had dreams and hope of a home in the New World. Her father sternly refused to consider it. She seemed but a child to him, and he thought she might soon be able to relieve her mother of sone responsibilities. Besides, he had far different plans for his oldest daughter. But youth and love would not be denied, and there came to their assistance, a neighbor, a friend of both families, who "dropped in" and pleaded their cause with such good effect that the desired consent was no longer with-held. I wish we might know more of this man, for he must have been a man worth knowing, and a true friend. An so they were married and came across the sea to Montreal.

"It seemed to be just the place for a good beginning. They became greatly attached to their new home in a short time. Money came in fast, for young Robert was a skilled workman. His work was making edged tools, from forging to polishing, valuable work in a new country. They were very happy. He used to bring his earnings home each day in a bandana handkerchief. Perhaps this was for fun, for he used to do things to tease. Once he brought home a whole cheese (for two people) and rolled it in from the door to see how it should be received.

"Their first baby was born there. (Named of course, Alexander, for the stern but much-loved father.) Everything seemed fair, but as time went on, life gradually took on a different hue. The young husband became ill, and being so young, they both began to long for their own land. Soon they decided to return, and took passage in the first available vessel. Now they had a very distressing experience. A lady with whom they had formed an acquaintance, had taken such a fancy to their beautiful baby that she could not bear to part with him. She was in curcumstances which could have enabled her to give him every advantage. She even came to the vessel, and cried and pleaded for him. The pitiful thing about it was that they could not take him home after all, for on the long voyage he pined and died and was buried at sea. Thus they returned, life beginning to take toll of them.

"They now decided to remain in Ireland. Robert's uncle, Harry Johnson (his mother's brother) had and estate, and here they came to live, and here three children were born - another Alexander, Henry Johnson, and Maria. Years after, at his death, Harry Johnson left his Irish home to his namesake. It was sold to Andrew Miller. The purchase money came to Halifax, and was paid in gold. After about seven years, Great Grandfather, still feeling drawn towards America and never quite satisfied, left his little family and came out again. I don't know if he came directly to Parrsboro, but before going back he bought land there, and made plans for a new home.

"This property consisted of forty acres purchaed more particularly for a home than a farm, as Great Grandfather's trade was more profitable than farming exclusively. What was thought to be rather peculiar was his choice of two immense hills for pasturage, when there was a wilderness of level land from which to choose. Facing these, on the opposite side of the road, was the home-site. The house was built in the shelter of a wooded hill. It was a large house with three fire-places. I remember hearing Grandma say they brought brass door-knobs and fittings for it from Ireland. At the back, the fields and gardens swept in a lovely slope to the River. It may have been that the scene of hills and meadows reminded him in some way of the old house. A smithy was built quite near the home. The plough still turns up cinders from the old forge. The property was in course of time divided equally between the sons Alex and Henry, who left their shares in turn to John and William respectively. All that remains of the home is the door-stone. Is is on John's part of the land, and he has never allowed it to be disturbed. So Great Grandfather went back for his family, and as this farewell was to be final, they lingered a little before saying good-bye forever. But at last they were on sea again.

"They came on the Brig. "Louise", landing at Patridge Island. This was 1832. Great Grandfather still under thirty years thus crossed the Atlantic five times, and Great Grandmother three times. In those days of slow and expensive travel, it must have been almost a record. Any home making voyage is memorable but this one had added interest. They lost a baby at sea, and on this voyage, another was born, their son John, who was so dearly loved. An old friend, remembered them as they came ashore, the young father, the little boys with buckle-shoes and top-coats, and the little mother wearing, a 'taffeta dress with a dimity petticoat,' carrying a new baby in her arms.

"Thus they came to their home at the Cross Roads, and here, two years later, Grandma (Margaret) was born, then Jane and Sarah. Now came the hardest thing that could have happened. The father of this little family died at the age of thirty-five, and Great Grandmother was left alone in the new land. She might have gone back over the sea, but she stayed in the land to which her husband had brought her. Her story goes on as all stories do. Her children grew up, each finding place and work. At one time when they were young people, during the period of the Crimean War, wheat and flour were so scarce that there was almost a flour famine in Parrsboro. Grandmother's brother Alex went to Halifax and chartered a vessel to bring a cargo of cornmeal. Grandma said she remembered seeing women going down to the vessel with basins for enough meal to make a baking.

"Grandma said her mother was kind to everyone. Her help and sympathy were ever ready, even to the extent of taking people into her home. Once they sheltered an old lady who on a long ago day had left forever, a home of welath in New York for love of a man whom her parents refused to recognize. He had been a sea captain but had been dead long years, and she was destitute. 'A bit of starch' was a necessity, as she used always to be doing up caps and kerchiefs. Sometimes she would show the children her treasures - some china cups and a tiny satin slipper. Grandma's sister Jane was a wonderful needlewoman. One day, when their mother was visiting, she suddenly conceived the idea of making pantalettes for Grandma. Grandma was about nine, and Jane, seven. They didn't know what to use, but little one suddenly thought of something. Grandma remembered seeing her standing on a chair, with her head and shoulders in a big 'chist' cutting away, and emerging with the pantelettes cut out of a precious damask curtain! They were soon made, and Grandma proudly wore then out to the field where her brothers were picking potatoes, secretly uneasy all the while, so she climbed a tree, and hid then in a safe place until she found a good opportunity, for the little sister was involved, and the matter might be serious. It must have come out alright, for it was remembered with amusement.

"But of all their family, I think her most enduring memory and greatest love was for her brother John, her playmate, as she called him, who died when he was nineteen. (August 5th, 1851.) He was the borther who never grew old. When she spoke of him, one could see that she still beheld him with the rosy cheeks and blue eyes of youth. She said he had been playing ball, and was overheated, and that he 'threw himself down on a bank to rest' and was chilled. It affected the glands of his neck, and after great suffering, he died. Dr. Nathan Tupper attended him, coming from Amherst on horseback. He did his utmost to save him, 'such a splendid youth.' Now this is a strange thing! Just after his death, his mother left the room and went to open the door. Some of his boy friends, at the monent were coming down the road. When they saw her, one of the shouted, 'John is better, isn't he? We have just seen him going into the blacksmith shop!' His mother said, 'No boys, John has just died.' This being long before the dawn of Physic Research, they had no possible explination, but it has always been remembered. Modern research clains parallel cases. He had been very fond of these boys. Grandma spoke of Ned Beatty and the Lockhart boys. He had talked with them about being good boys. Their lives were intimate, and their interests common, which might have had some bearing. Grandma kept a little book of his through all her years of home keeping. At the last, she gave it to me to keep. I hope whoever has it when I leave it, will keep it tenderly for their memory.

"After years, Great Grandmother married again. Her second husband was Mr. James Leitch. She had one more daughter Martha, our 'Aunt Martha Rodgers.' Both Great Grandmother and her husband died in 1869, within a month. Aunt Allie has her Bible, brought from Ireland, worn from reading. She must have known many hours of heart-ache and loneliness. She gave up much for love, but I think if we could ask her, she would say it was worth the price.

- Horton -

"Grandpa said that five Horton brothers...had come from London...and one of these brothers was our Great Great Grandfather Stuteley Horton. We never tired of the story, but now, when I wish to write it down, I have a desire to clear up a number of little points, but I have no one to ask....

"As I have said, we never tired of hearing the story of Stuteley Horton. (Grandpa always pronounced it Stute-i-lee') of how he came to Truro, and received his land grant in the Musquodoboit Valley, of how he and his friend, Fisher of Truro, rode out into the forest, carrying seed and potatoes, and the prime necessities- blazing their way. I do not know how long they were in reaching their destination, but finally, on a lovely evening at sunset, they came out upon a ridge over-looking the fertile valley, which held the promise of a new home. They stopped to make camp, and one went to try his luck at fishing.

"Soon he heard the crack of a musket and on coming back, found that his companion had shot a wild fowl - or as some tell the story - a moose. At any rate, they could be sure of fish and game, and they were well pleased. Ther equipment was slender indeed, yet it embrased the essentials and precious things: A Title to Land, Personal Resources, Free Gifts of Nature, Beautiful Surroundings, Youth, Energy, and a priceless Friendship. I shall now tell how Love was added to make it complete.

"In these days of rapid travelling and many conveniences, it is not easy to appreciate the conditions under which the pioneers lived. We are so accustomed to the thought of their hardships, that we are prone to take it as a matter of course, and dismiss it lightly. Granted that they were a hardier people, pain and illness must still have been very serious, so far from the towns.

"Shortly after they began their work, young Stuteley became very ill of fever. In spite of everything he grew worse and worse, until Fisher took the desperate chance of leaving him alone and going to Truro for a Doctor. This was a difficult journey to make in haste, but it was accomplished, and moreover, repeated, as it was necessary to return with the Doctor. On this second journey he was to receive unexpected help, for his sister Hannah, on hearing of their plight, with great courage and decision, rode out into the wilderness, sitting behind her brother. Together the brother and sister nursed the sick man back to health, and as soon as might be, all three journeyed back to Truro where Stuteley and Hannah were married. She now rode on the other horse. Their marriage is mentioned in the Tom Miller Book - a local history. He also mentions that Hannah Fisher was born in Truro in 1748. And so the home became a reality. Other settlers came, and in 1784, General Campbell's muster of the Loyalists in Nova Scotia, gave to 'Musquadobbin', 10 men, 4 women, and 2 children. I should like to think that one at least was a little Horton child, as there were thirteen children in this first family, the oldest, Elizabeth, (Betsey) married Alexander Kent, Sr. and the youngest married James Brenton. There were eleven sons between. James Horton, one of the sons, was Grandpa's father. He married Elizabeth Keillor. The Keillors were also Loyalists of Yorkshire lineage, who settled on rich marsh lands of Amherst Head.

"Although the community at Musquodoboit was very small, they were a very happy family in the old Homestead. The first school was eagerly welcomed, some, even of the married people taking advantage of the precious opportunity. They had singing school whenever possible. The younger sister had a very beautiful voice. Even in her later years it was said to be wonderful. In course of time, there were enough people to make a petition for a highway to Halifax, which was granted. Although Great Grandfather, James Horton was, by trade, a wheel-wright, and cabinet-maker, he was very fond of the woods, and was called a great Scout. He was something of an adventurer. A story of his youth was one we liked to hear. It happended in Guysboro, then called Chedabucto. He and another man were in a boat, when they suddenly saw in the water before them, an enormous moose, swimming steadily towards a distant point. They happened to have in the boat with them, a coil of rope. Without stopping to think of consequences, they succeeded in throwing a noose over the great antlers. They made the end of the rope fast to the boat, and held on! It was a grand ride while it lasted, until he [the moose] came ashore, dashed in the forest, sending them flying, and wrecking their boat, and a boat was a boat - in those days.

"The year 1825 found him [James Horton] living in Mirimichi with his family, where they narrowly escaped death in the Great Fire. He happened to be sick in bed at the time. He was carried from his house, and placed in the shelter of a great pile of tan-bark on the shore. In the great confusion, they lost sight of some of their children, and someone went back and found them. After a time their shelter caught fire, and they had to go into the water. Great Aunt Susie was a little girl five years old. Grandpa was not born then, but remembered how they used to tell it over. They could never forget the long wait for safety, the heat and the terror, and the bears and other animals in the water.

"Grandpa was born June 12th, 1833, at Amherst Head. When he was about six, his father took the eldest boy, (James) and went on his last adventure. This time he went up the St. John River and never returned. News travelled slowly, and it was learned long afterwards, that he had been drowned.

"Wherever he lived, he used to be called upon in difficulties. It was always, 'Get Horton.' Once in Mirimichi, there was a big lumber jam on the River. I have heard how he was sent for - how he located the king log, and how he advised them in their work. Under more favorable times and circumstances he might have been a great engineer. In addition to his skill and knowledge, his was an adventurous spirit which answered the call to strange places.

"Great Grandmother was thus left the difficult task of bringing up a large family. There were four boys, James (who went away), Thomas, Samuel, George (Grandpa), and six girls, Hannah, Mary Ann, Euncie, Ellen, Susan and Rebecca. Grandpa said they used to call his mother a dreamer. I don't know if that meant that she was impractical, or if it referred to an actual habit of dreaming. At any rate, a startling chairvoyant dream of hers is a part of family history. I asked Grandpa himself about it. I shall write it down as he told it to me, as a close to his part of my story of the Horton family.

"A vessel was being loaded within sight of their home and she was interested. One night she dreamed that she saw it wrecked out of St. John Harbour. It was so vivid that she was troubled, but did not speak of it. The next night she saw it again, and the next night. She could bear it no longer, but actually went to the captain of the ship, and implored him to postpone his sailing. A captain under orders could not readlly do that. She realized it, and yet she was hurt when he laughed at what he called a fancy. She then told him her dream, and described the men washed ashore, lying along the beach. 'One man lying across another, and only one saved.' They were to sail early on a Sunday morning. Troubled in spirit, she arose early, and dressing herself, went up on the hill to see if it had gone. When she found it was really so, she turned back and went into a neighbor's house and cried. Before long, news came. It had happened! Time, place and circumstance, as she had seen it. The Captain and crew were washed ashore. 'One may lying across another, and one man saved.'

"Grandpa [George 7.0530] and Grandma Horton were married at the Cross Roads, Parrsboro, July 1st, 1857. (Two of the cakes were made by the old firm of Rankine's St. John.) Although they made several moves at first, they kept a home fifty-one years together. Grandpa was a farmer first and last, but worked at mining and building as it came his way. They came to Springhill in the autum of 1875....

"Every member of this family had blue eyes, both Simpsons and Hortons being blue-eyed people. Grandpa's eyes, even in old age, were very fine. Our mother and uncle Will had eyes most like his, -the true "Horton Eye", being of a deep blue with wide lids, and a beautiful uplifted expression. It is characteristic and occurs in most of the families. Touching upon heriditary traits, I think that Grandpa inherited from his father, a love of space, and a sense of direction. They used to say of him that he could not be lost. A little story of long age will illustrate this, and show also another side of what was surely and interesting character. The opening of the mines, and work which followed, attracted men to Springhill, and Grandpa came here to work before he brought the family. It happened that he was obliged to work up to Christmas Eve. He was expected home, but he had no horse with him, and there was no train. What did he do? He simply made his Christmas things into a pack and walked home. He entered the woods at Springhill, and walked directly to Fenwick, a distance of at least fifteen miles. There was not a great deal of snow, but there was a crust which broke at every step.

"One might judge of his physique from a test such as this. He had powerful shoulders and a strong neck which gave a fine poise to his head. With age, his brusque hair grew snow-white, but showed no sign of thinning. He never touched alcohol nor tobacco in any form. Grandpa had a strange difficult nature which required a loving understanding. Take one characteristic, and you would almost invariably find its opposite. He could be both harsh and gentle, forgiving and unforgiving. He was an enemy of hypocricy and injustice, and had quick words to defend his principles. Both he and Grandma (inspite of the fact that she liked best to be at home) knew people in every part of the country. Grandpa used to meet people he knew. Before many minutes he would say in his quick, direct way, 'Where are you stopping? Come and put your horse in, and have dinner with us.' This was not always convenient for grandma, but she would 'make them welcome', and never seemed to be at a loss. Soon they would be all enjoying themselves.

"Grandma had a truly remarkable memory of families. Once when I was little, I heard someone mention the name of Gilbert. I stepped up and informed them that 'Gilbert and Mary were full cousins.' I was greatly humiliated when everybody laughed, as I thought I was contributing something.

"There home was always 'Up Home' to us, and there we enjoyed our greatest freedom. Grandma would say, 'Now run and play yourselves.' She would scold us and give us lovely things to eat. We never minded Grandma's words, but a quick word from Grandpa, or a look over his glasses as he read, was sufficient. Yet we took our splinters and hurts to him, his hands were so steady and gentle. He could do things without hurting, and in sickness, he seemed to know instinctively what to do. When the children were little, they were visited by that terrible scourge of the early settlers, diptheria. Their baby, little Aunt Bertie died, and Aunt Allie and Aunt Jennie were far advanced in the disease. Dr. Cove attended them, but he admitted he could do nothing more. Grancpa then, with the Doctor's knowledge and consent, began making big soft poultices of grated potatoes and salt, which he kept on their throats, making and changing them himself. Whatever Modern Science would think of it, it has always been thought that his remedy saved them. During his last years, he suffered from his heart, but never gave in to it as a sickness. After being about as usual, he passed away in his sleep one morning. Grandma died also of heart trouble. Her's was the slow, cruel, form. It hurts to think how she had to suffer before she could go away. Grandpa told me once, when he was old, that he wished he could have been a surgeon. Perhaps some of the children, reading these little stories, may in time, recognize within themselves some inherent traits or qualities, which with greater opportunities, may lead them to achievement, where those who first possessed them were only able to pave the way."

7.0623 JOHN FERNANDO HORTON (John 6.333, Jacob 5.157; Thomas 4.53; David 3.11; Thomas 2.4, 1.1) was b. 15 Aug. 1847 Boston, Erie Co., NY; d. 18 Aug. 1925 Eden, Erie Co., NY
He m. 15 Oct. 1873 Eden, NY, ELIZA ANN BAKER, b. 5 Feb. 1851 Boston; d. 20 Feb. 1937; dau. of Calvin T. and Phebe (Wightman) Baker.

John was born on Horton Hill, west of Boston, NY. When he was about 6 years old, the family moved to a house in the valley near New Oregon. It still stands, a trim cottage whose gables are hung with neat white "gingerbread" woodwork.

Then about 1859, his father, being dissatisfied with the church, moved to Eden, Erie Co. In Eden, their land was located on gently rolling upland nine miles from Lake Erie. The homestead and barns were on high ground above a stream. Tall sugar maples grew there and they named the place Maple Grove.

After the Civil War, John was the only child living at home with his parents. John was 25 at the time his father stood his ground against the railroad construction. The two men probably stood together. After John Sr's death in March 1873, the railroad was completed across his land. The coming of the railroad was the beginning of a new way of life for the folks in Erie Co.

John, no longer "Young John", had other ideas about starting a new way of life. He courted Eliza Ann Baker who lived in a red log house down on Hemlock Road. He had known her since childhood, for the Baker place had adjoined the Horton place on Horton Hill, Boston. They were married that fall and made their home at Maple Grove. John's mother Rachel lived with them until her death.

John began to develop a fruit and vegetable gardening business for the Buffalo market. In time, his produce was well-known: onions, potatoes, beans, tomatoes, apples, pears, and grapes. He kept bees, built a hothouse, a "shop" for repairing farm machinery, a cider mill and a "sugar shanty" for boiling sap into maple syrup.

He kept sheep as his father had before him, and sheared them. The wool was carded in Sardinia, and the annual trips occasioned memorable family visits with the relatives--Uncle William and Aunt Malvina Horton of Springville, or Uncle Lorenzo and Aunt Phebe Horton of Arcade, or Uncle Sterling and Aunt Annis Titus of Sardinia. After that the yarn balls rolled endlessly, the knitting needles flashed incessantly, and there were always warm mittens to wear in the winter. A large floor loom in the rafter room over the kitchen was said to have been used by Eliza for household weaving, but no one knows whether John built it, or someone else. Possibly it came to Maple Grove when she married John.

Sons Jay and Clyde grew up amidst the busy barnyard of small animals, taking special pleasure with the lambs, goats, cats and donkey. (The cats had their own private little hinged door from the kitchen to the woodshed.) Jay had a pet goat he taught to walk along the top rail of the fence between the house and the barns.

With a family of 6 children, John decided one day that the house was too small. He developed a plan, which depended upon teamwork! He invited a number of sturdy relatives, and upon the appointed day, stationed a son or brother at each corner of the house. Each had a jack in hand. As John called out, everyone lifted his jack at the same time and the roof inched up. At the next call, everyone lifted his jack again, and again and again. When at last the needed height was attained, posts were set in and they were ready for the construction of the second story. "The day the roof was raised" became one of the favorite family stories.

John served the community for a time as Poormaster for the town of Eden, as Assessor for many years as well as School board member. He served at least three times as a juror in the U.S. District court for the Western District of NY, making daily trips by horse and buggy to Buffalo. He was an active member of the Baptist Church.

The frequent trips (56 in 1898) to the Buffalo market were made by team and wagon. The story is told that once, Eliza rode to market with John. One of the new trolley cars in the city struck their wagon. Eliza was thrown from the wagon, which overturned. She suffered a back injury. With a lawyer's assistance, after a long legal procedure, they finally collected enough money to pay off all of their debts. Her back ached the rest of her life.

As the grandsons knew John in his later years, they received an impression of severity, boundless resourcefulness, unquestionable authority, and no-nonsense sobriety. However, a glimmer of humor shows through in his definition of a mince pie, so dryly given at a family dinner, that a grandson remembered it nearly fifty years later: "A mince pie has an upper and a nether crust and untold horrors between."

John's family, all b. NY, in the 1880 Eden census was: John F. 33, Eliza A. 29, Jay D. 5, Clyde F. 3, Ethel R. 2, Ruth 4 mo. and Rachael, mother, 74. HORTON FAMILY REUNION, 25 Aug. 1909
Horton Homestead, on West Hill Road, New Lebanon, New York
Howard M. Gillet, Photographs and Postcards, Lebanon Springs, NY

This family reunion inspired Austin Jay Horton to compile his 1912 family genealogy. Ruth Metzler believes that everyone present is in the book. After preparing a list, from the book, of those who lived within a day's easy (horse/buggy) travel of New Lebanon, plus the families with a keen interest in family history, Ruth has prepared the following tentative list of those in the picutre. We hope the printing of this picture will lead to furthur identification of the individules present. Please write to Ruth Horton Metzler, 235 Belcoda Dr., Rochester, NY 14617

Ruth writes, "It is certain that when A.J. began to arragnge for this photo, he had chairs placed in a row, where Horton descendants in 50's and 60's could be comfortably seated and seen. Then I can just hear Great-Grandpa saying, 'Well, I'll just sit down here, and you sit with me Eliza, and you there Cortes' (8.1147)(who had probably traveled with him by railroad, for North Collins is only 2* miles from Eden). So a row of cousins began across in front of the seated ones.

"The center front seat was probably given to the oldest present direct descentant of Thomas (4.53), J. Spencer Carr Horton (7.630) who held the heirloom pewter plate. Probably only the direct descendants were asked to sit in these first two rows, thus dividing some married couples, but uniting generations and cousins. A.J.'s first two grandchildren as well as other young children present were placed in front so they could be seen. Some of these very youngest descendants of Thomas (4.53) were doubtless shy and needed the protective presence of their fathers with them!

"I believe that most of the individuals standing across the back are spouses of the seated descendants, with the exception of A.J. Horton himself, possibly his brother Howard M., his cousin Howard F. and the young single folks. Doubtless they arranged everyone else, then took up their positions at the last minute before the shutter clicked."

"Let us call this a Tentative Identification of Individuals, with "?" = "possible", "*" = "probably"; and "#" = "positive", ages are aproximate in 1909."

He served in the Civil War, enlisting on 20 Sept. 1862 at New Lebanon as a private in Company F, 49th MA Vols., and was discharged on 8 Jan. 1863 for chronic diarrhea contracted near Worcester, MA and a cut foot. The papers show he was 5' 6" tall with blue eyes and dark hair. In 1868 he moved to Granville where he was a farmer. He lived in Kansas for a time. Eliza filed for a pension and received $8.00 a month for herself and $2.00 for her daughter Julia. In 1916 the pension was increased to $20 per month.

In 1880 Eliese, listed as Eliza J., 41 b. Prussia, lived in Segourney, Keobuk Co., IA with her 2 daughters, Mary L.F. Phelps 14 and Julia M. Horton 10. In 1900 she was still in Sigourney, b. July 1838 Germany, age 61, and said she came to the US in 1861. She was shown as not having had any children, an obvious error considering her obituary and other records.

Eliese J. Horton's obituary reads in part: Mrs. E.J. Horton of Sigourney, who has been sick for the past six weeks, passed away June 3, 1927 at 12:05 a.m., at the home of ther daughter, Mrs. W.A. Talbot. She suffered with bronchial pneumonia. Her daughter, Mrs. G.J. Deiterich was with her also. Her birth record is given, as above, and adds she was of French-Hugenot parentage. At the age of 23, she came to America, spending a year with a brother in New York City, then came Sigourney to reside with another brother, C.H. Achard. She is survived by her two daughters, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. She was a member of the Methodist church. The funeral was held on June 6th at 2:30 in Mrs. Talbot's home with burial in Riverside Cemetery, Marshalltown.

Vera Heck sent copies of a number of unidentified pictures from a Horton family album, many taken in Sigourney. I will be happy to share them with anyone who may be able to identify them.

Freeman moved to Bradenton in 1880 for a milder climate to improve his health. He traveled alternately by train, boat, train, and boat again to reach his destination. He built a home in the country next to distant relatives of his wife and established Phoenix Nursiries selling budded citrus stock that he grew and shipped. He was also a partner in a general store. He was an avid hunter and collector of nature objects.

Mary Hudson Horton was widowed after 16 months of marriage, left with a 5 month old baby and 3 young step-children. Against many odds, she kept the family together and managed college educations for the 3 boys and business training for the daughter. Her birth age is an estimate as she would never tell her age. Her family came from Ireland in 1865. She was old enough to remember Ireland and had 3 younger sisters born there.

In 1880 he was a laborer. I have been unable to locate Mary or Freeman Hudson in the 1900 census. His children, Lucille, Hugh and Marcia (error for Marshall) were living with his brother, Gilman in Ludlow, VT at the time of the 1900 census.

He m. SAMANTHA SNOW HARDY, b. 1828-30 Landaff, NH; d. 25 June 1904 Whitefield, NH; of parents b. NH. She may have married first a Cordey or Hardy.

He was a farmer and lumberman. They were the Carroll, Coos Co., NH census as follows: 1860: Gilbert P. 35, farmer with $700 real estate and $400 personal property, Samantha 32, Henry 8, Amuret (sic) 3, Vienna 10 m.; 1870: Gilbert 44, farmer with $2,200 real estate and $700 personal property, Samantha 40, Henry Cordey 17 laborer, Everett Cordey 15, Abbie Horton 9, Ida 7, Albert P. 3; 1880: Gilbert P. 54 farmer, Samantha 51, Abbie F. 19, Ida B. 16, and Albert P. 13, all b. NH.

The way that the Cordey boys are placed before the Horton children in the 1870 census would lead one to believe that the Henry and Amuret (prob. Everett) of the 1860 census, although listed as Hortons, were children of Samantha by a first husband.

In 1860 he was living with his parents, a farmer, unm. Montraville Plum moved his family to Orange City, Florida in 1880 where the census shows him as an agriculturist. He was 48, b. VT, Charlotte was 27, b. NH and they had the first 4 children with them. In 1900 Charlotte was living in Carroll, NH. She was shown as b. May 1853, a widow with 4 living children. She was with her niece, Lottie A. Brown and her family. Also in the household was Charlotte's mother, Latitia J. Holmes, b. Nov. 1821 NY, father was b. England and mother was b. MA. She had had 5 children and 3 were alive.

Montraville served in the Civil War, enlisting in Aug. 1862, in Carroll, age 30, height 6' 1", complexion dark, eyes brown, hair black, in Co. I, 3rd Regt. NH Inf. and served under Capt. C.S. Burnham. He was wounded 10 July 1863, and discharged at Goldsborough, NC.

The Orange City, FL "Free Press" of Tuesday, 21 Jan. 1890 says: "Mr. M.P. Horton and son Frank left last Friday for Canaveral, where they have taken a homestead of 160 acres of fine land."

Another clipping, probably from the Melbourne paper, not dated, tells of a fire that destroyed the two story residence of C. VanHorne in East Melbourne. The clipping contiues: "Besides the loss to Mr. VanHorne the occupants of the dwelling, Mr. and Mrs. M.P. Horton, four children and Mrs. Watson, Mr. Horton's sister, lost all their clothing, furniture, jewelry, money, and two sewing machines.

"We understand that only three members of the family were at home when the fire was discovered, the rest not yet getting home from church, and instead of trying to save their goods, worked hard to save the house, but could not.

"...The people of the community have responded liberally to the distressed ones, in a substantial way."

Their daughters, Edwina and Estella, each kept small note books filled with family records. Jim Kirby, a great-great grandson of Montraville Plum, has kindly given me a copy of these books, along with many records he has collected. Most of the information presented on the descendants of Montraville Plum will be from these sources. I was also fortunate to visit with the widow of Charles M. Horton, Ruby Swain Horton Warren in Ft. Pierce and with her son, Charles M., Jr. in Seattle.

It is most interesting that the above manuscripts of Edwina and Estella, the Col. Dyer MS of Rutland, VT and the Emily Horton Buswell MS all contain nearly the same information on the early generations of the family, except for the imediate family of each writer. I believe the four writers shared much of what they knew of the family. Edwina and Estella included the following letter in their manuscripts.

"Extracts from letter by M.P. Horton to his sister [Vienna Jane]

Hospital #8 Bieuford, S.C. Sept. 11- 1863

"You wanted me to tell you all about the battle I was wounded in, so I will begin at the beginning.

"The ninth of July we left Folly Island about sundown, and was going up a creek about 6 miles in row boats to Morris Island and take the fort in the night. We all had a white bandage around left arm so we could tell our men from the Rebs (there was about 4 thousand of us). We went about 3 miles and there was something that wasn't right so we staid there all night in the boats and at daylight started back. And got there about sunrise. And it was my luck to be on guard that day till about 4 P.M. then was releived. And we started again about daylight then we came in sight of the rebel Battery then we stopped and about sunrise our Battery opened on them. Our battery was on Folly Island and was masked, the rebs didn't know we had one there. We was so near the rebels battery that we could see the sentrys guns on the fort. The rebels shelled us some, tho they did not hit but one boat - the shell hit that before it burst and stove one side of it all off. Killed one man and wounded 2 more and spilt all in the boat into the water. The boat was about 10 rods from ours so I had a good chance to see it all. They shelled about 3 hours then the 6 Conn. had orders to land and before they had formed in line the 3rd N.H. was called for and you had ought to have seen them go. As soon as a boat touched the shore they all junped, most of them into the water of course, and before the 6 Conn. got the first rifle pit our Reg. was formed and started and marched up in line of battle - that is two deep. I was in the front rank and as there is only three in the Co. taller than I am, I was near the right of the Co. Well we marched up to within about 10 rods of the Fort when your humble servant got a minie ball in his leg. So I turned and went to the right about 5 rods and got behind a rifle pit and there I laid close and let the balls pass over.

"But it wasn't more than 1/2 hour before the rebs were on the run and our boys after then they drove then into Fort Wagner.

"I won't tire you with how I limped along some and was carried on a stretcher some and finally rode in a lumber wagon until I got to camp and from there to the Hospital. The ball laid close to the bone so they couldn't feel it. The ball was in 12 days before I got the Doctor to cut it out. And I don't think he would then but I told him if he wouldn't I would that day, he was afraid of the big artery as it had to be cut near it, but I told him I has as lives bleed to death as to let it Mortify.

"It hurt some when he took it out, but I think if it had laid there much longer I should have lost my leg if nothing more. Our troops are doing good business at Charleston, Fort Sumpter Fort Wagner, Battery Gregg, and Fort Moultrie is ours, and I think Charleston will be. The Rebs have got James Island almost covered with batteries our folks say that it can't keep us out of Charleston. Don't you think the Rebs will think about comming back into the Union when Charleston falls? I do. North Carolina is about the same as come back now, and I think more will soon.

Montraville P. Horton."

According to her obituary, Charlotte died in her home on Strawbridge Ave., in the morning, of tonsilitis. The marriage date is given here as 1868. They moved to Orange City, FL in 1880 and to Melbourne in 1896. She was Baptist in her youth, but in Florida joined the Methodist church. She was survived by her mother, 5 children and 10 grandchildren.

Dr. Horton was educated at Ludlow Academy, Castleton Medical College, and the University of Vermont where he graduated in 1858. He first practiced in Shrewsbury, then in Poultney until his death. He was a Homeopathic doctor and delivered my mother-in-law, Gladys Marshall Jenks. Dr. Horton's obituary states he died on Tuesday after an illness of 12 days. He had lived in Shrewsbury for 6 years, and in the present home 60 years. He had been president of the State Homeopathic Medical society. He was a republican and had cast his vote for 18 presidents from John C. Fremont to Calvin Coolidge. At the time of his death he was the oldest living graduate of the University of Vermont. He was survived by 1 son, 2 daughters, and 3 grandchildren. The funeral was to be held on Friday at his home with Rev. Thomas Davison officating.

In the summer of 1953, on my first visit to Poultney after my marriage to Bob Jenks, Bob's grandmother, Daisy Horton Marshall, took us to visit Miss Maude Horton. Miss Horton took us through the home, the walls filled with her beautiful paintings and we had lemonade in the beautiful garden beside the home. We have two oil paintings in the family done by Maude Horton.

A few years later, my maternal grandparents along with her sister and brother-in-law, Neal Hulett, son of Amelia Horton Hulett (8.0404), visited the home. After the visit my grandmother wrote "We told Miss Horton who we were and she made us very welcome. She is living alone. We were astonished at her beautiful home, just full of paintings and nice furnishings, quite out of the ordinary. We loved her paintings and seeing the inlaid floor of alternate dark and light wood and many things made by her men folk! There were many rooms and treasures.

"After we had seen all over the first floor, she took us out into the garden at the back, where there is a grove of trees and flower beds, etc. She gave us as many as we wanted to take, of mountain ash small trees, children of a beautiful large tree. So Neal planted one on his place (Granville, NY) and we brought home small ones and planted two. When we went again into the house, she invited us to go up stairs to see the upper rooms of paintings and her work shop. She taught painting some and now has a young man to help her, who is learning to paint."

Alonzo E. was called Henry in the 1850 census. In the 1860 Shrewsbury census, he was a physician with $1200 real estate and $200 personal property. They had one son, Ernest age 2. In the 1880 Poultney census the family, all b. VT, was: Alonzo E. 45 physician; Ellen 44; Earnest 21, unm; Minnie 18; Claude 13; and Maude 7. In 1900, Dr. Alonzo A. owned his home; Ellen said they had been married 45 years, had had 5 children and 4 were alive; and daughter Maude, unm. was at home.

Welcome was a farmer, they had been married 19 years and had had only the 5 children listed.

In daughter Hattie's birth record, Edwins birth place was given as Ira. This may be because of a change in town lines.

In the 1870 Chittenden census, Edwin was 28, a farm laborer with $500 real estate and $300 personal property; Ellen was 25 b. VT and Bertha 4 b. VT. In the 1880 Chittenden census he was a farmer and they had the 4 children. In 1900 he owned a farm in Chittenden and Ellen said she had had 5 children and 4 were alive.

He had a 125 acre farm and was constable and collector for Clarendon for many years. He was town representative in 1880 and 1882 and county senator in 1884. In 1890 he was an assistant judge and at his death a side judge.

Edwin served in the Civil War for Troy, NY, enlisting on 15 June 1861 for 1 year in Co.G, 22nd Regt. and in 1863 in the 4th Vt. Regt. He saw service in the battles of the Wilderness and at Petersburg, was wounded twice, and discharged in 1865.

Before her marriage, she taught school in MI and WA. After her marriage in 1907, they lived at Neha Bay, WA, on the Indian Reservation where he was Post Trader. Shortly after the birth of her 5th child, Lynma moved to Ocean Park, CA with the children. She enrolled in Los Angeles Norman School (now UCLA), and was an early graduate. She taught for 28 years in Santa Monica, and in a final eulogy after her death in her 91st year, she was remembered as a great teacher with concern for the students that other teachers found unteachable.

He engaged in the oil business in PA for a few years, then returned home and with his brother Charles C. established the drug and grocery firm of Horton Brothers at Silver Creek. They also planted 75 acres of grapes and had a successful vineyard.

They were in the 1880 Silver Creek census living on Rumsey St. He was 35 a druggest, Christina 34 b. Canada of Canadian parents, Albert 4 b. NY and Clinton 3 b. NY. In 1900 they lived in Silver Creek and he was a druggest. Their ages are as stated above and they had been married 26 years. Christina said she came to the US in 1872 and had had 4 children and 3 were alive. The three children were at home.

His 3rd marriage is probably an error in Cutter, printed in 1912. Even if she died in 1912 age 79, she would have been many years older than Elmer. His wife in 1892 was Christina according to the 1880 to 1900 census.

He m. 17 April 1876 RVR, MARY FRANCES IRONS, b. 8 Aug. 1852 RVR; d. 1900-1910; dau. of Nelson and Olive Ann (-) Irons.

The Rehoboth vital records, both the state and the Arnold copy, list a marriage for Mary F. Irons, age 21, b. & of Rehoboth, dau. of Nelson and Olive A. to William N.

Willmarth, age 33, b. and of Providence, son of Horace and Christina Willmarth, on 1 Jan. 1874. This marriage must have been annulled, as I can find no other Mary F., dau. of Nelson and Olive Ann in Rehoboth, to have married as her second husband, two years latter, Charles D. Horton. This Mary F. Irons' sister, Hattie/Harriet M. Irons, was the wife of Stephen P. Horton (8.0757), Charles Danforth's brother.

The only man of the right age to be Mary and Hattie's father Nelson Irons, with a wife Olive, in the 1860 Rehoboth census, was Nelson Jones, 33 b. RI, factory operative, with wife Olive A., 28 b. RI. They had a daughter Mary F. 8 b. MA. There is no such Jones family in the Rehoboth vital records, but the Irons family fits nicely. The 1870 census does not list a single Jones family, but I did find Nelson Irons, 43, farm laborer, b. MA, Olive A. 38 b. MA, Mary 17 b. MA and Harriet 9 b. MA. Errors in birth state are common in census records. It seems evident that the Jones family of 1860 is actualy the Irons family.

Charles D. was a mason in 1876, a laborer in 1880 and in 1900 a day laborer living in a rented home. Mary said she had had 4 children and 3 were alive. Her parents were b. in RI (sic). In 1910, Charles D. was living alone, age 66.

He m. 1889 Berkley and Lakeville VR, JENNIE E. ROBBINS, b. Sept. 1870 MA; d. 1900+.

In 1880 he was a laborer, living with his parents. In the 1900 Berkley, Bristol Co., MA census, he was a house carpenter, his birth was given incorrectly as March 1847, age 50, unless I have made an error placing this Fred N. as the son of Isaac N. Horton. He was the only Fred N. living in Berkley. Jennie said she had had 7 children, with 5 still alive and at home. Except for the daughter, Jennie M. who was going to school, all of the family was reported as not able to read, write or speak English. Except for some physical problem, it would be impossible for a family born and living in this part of MA not to speak English.

He m.(2?) 30 June 1903 PVR, MARY G.M. LEACY; b. ca 1876; d. 11 Jan. 1931 age 55 y. as widow of WILLIS E., PVR.

In 1900 they lived in a rented home at 12 Matilda St., Providence, RI. He was a brick mason. Eldora said she had had 7 children and 6 were alvie.

Since the death of Eldora comes after the marriage of Willis E. to Mary, the full Providence vital records should be checked. The death records for most wives show who their husband was, but for Eldora, her parents names were given, making me wonder if she and Willis were divorced. Son Norman Westcott's birth was recorded in Rehoboth as Willis, but the son of the same age was Norman W. in the 1900 census.

The Dighton VR's show the birth of Alice L. in Sept. 1880. The 1900 census places Frank C. as the child who was b. Sept. 1880. They would appear to be twins, yet probably one record is in error.

In the 1910 Dighton census they lived on Elm St. He was a foreman in the foundry. They had been married 12 years, had son Lewis B. 8 and his mother, Harriet E. His name was given as Charles A. on his birth record, but on all other records as Albert W. In 1880, Albert W. age 19 was the eldest child in the family of Charles A. and Lydia M. Horton. It is quite possible his full name was Charles Albert Wheeler Horton. Ida's name was given as Ida P. Brown in the Dighton record of the marriage and the birth of the first two children, as Ida B. Bowen in RVR's, and as Ida (Hayden) in the death of son Charles A.

In 1900 they lived in a rented home on Highland Street in Taunton. He was a farmer and his birth was listed as Oct. 1860. They had been married 15 years and Ida said she had had 5 children and 4 were alive, and living at home.

He lived in Dighton all of his life going to the Fish School, and was a member of the West Dighton Congregational Church. He was a farm laborer in 1900 and later a stone mason. In 1910 his ocupation was listed as working out, and Irene had had only the 4 children who were at home (prob. error). They lived on Wellington Street and he enjoyed hunting.

As a stone mason, he built many stone walls, walks and brick chimneys. The building on Winthrop St., built for the Anawan Council of Boy Scouts, by Ralph Davol, was his work. Everett did the masonry work in the fire place and chimney with cobble stone. The front of the building was granite shipped in from out of town. He also built a stone wall large enough for a track around the Dighton High School, now the Middle School, that stands today just as nice as when it was built.

He m.(2) AMELIA FAIRBURN.

Mrs. Douglass wrote that Annie Kerr's parents names are unknown, except that her mother's maiden name was Sterling. (Their names are on the marriage license.) Annie was born shortly after the ship, bringing her mother, arrived from England. She died shortly after Annie's birth. Annie's father met them in Philadelphia and took the baby to his mother in New Brunswick. Mrs. Douglass believes there were two older brothers and one went to sea. She also thinks that Annie's father may have returned to Philadelphia to work and his mother raised Annie.

William moved to Springhill in the 1870's and at age 17 reorganized the Springhill Band and became its leader. He later moved to Nanaimo, BC and was a cornetist in the Nanaimo Band.

At the age of 21 he went to Waukee, Dallas Co., IA where he taught school one winter and worked for his uncle Ovando Horton the next summer. The next two years were spent at Parker's Landing, PA working in the oil business. The next eight years were spent working for J.V Horton & Co. cheese manufacturers at Eden Valley, NY. He purchased the factory, adding a general store and post office. The store expanded to a large general mercantile business. He was also Justice of the Peace thirteen years.

In 1900 he sold out and moved to Hamburg and engaged in real estate and insurance with an office in Buffalo.

He was very interested in family history and organized two major Horton family reunions, 1886 and 1909. In 1912 he published a book "The Descendants of Thomas Horton." He spent many hours with correspondence to his cousins and collected as much detail as their cooperation provided him. Some errors have been found that we have tried to correct. We have also been able to extend this Horton line back three more generations from Austin's earliest known ancestor, Thomas Horton b. 1754 in Rehoboth.

Losing his wife in 1917, and in poor health, Austin J. left his home on 43 Union St. in Hamburg, and entered the sanitorium at Wellsville, NY where he died a year later "not from rheumatism, but from the strong medicins used to combat it." (quote from his son Erwin Churchill, often known as ECH) They were buried in the Prospect Lawn Cemetery in Hamburg.

The family was in the 1880 Eden, Erie Co., NY census as follows: Austin 30, Delia 28, Roy 5, and Alta 2, all b. NY. They were in the 1900 Eden census with the ages as given in the text. Austin J. was a groceryman, Roy A. a stenographer, Alta D. a store clerk and Erwin and Bessie were in school. They had been married 26 years and all 4 children were alive and at home.

Jay's childhood was spent on his parents' farm south of Eden where he learned to handle horses, plant, cultivate and harvest the fruits, grains and vegetables which were the family livelihood. He attended the District #5 school house on Carpenter Road through eighth grade, then Hamburg High School from which he graduated in March 1894.

With his family, Jay was active in all the programs of the Eden Baptist Church, including the young people's Christian Endeavor Society where he met Nettie March. From 1893-1896, he served on the Social Committee, then as Treasurer he carried on an active correspondence with other C.E. officers throughout the Lake Eire Union. The Y.P.S.C.E. Quarterly Meetings were the central social activity of Jay and Nettie's family and friends. Jay kept a diary each year from 1882 onward. In 1895 he confided in it the difficulty of "speaking ahead" for the use of Flossie--the favorite family horse--and the buggy in order to take Nettie home from C.E. meetings.

Jay and Nettie were married in her home on March Road in 1896. Their honeymoon was a trip by railroad cars to her cousin's in Alden, NY. Soon they moved, again by Erie Railroad, to Brooklyn, NY where Jay was employed by the Standard Oil Co. for the next four years.

Their diaries and letters between Eden and Brooklyn reflect in great detail the happiness of new friends in the Union Avenue Baptist Church in Brooklyn, evening walks around the city parks, and his work at the docks. Jay's flair for pencil sketches have left the family a whimsical self portrait of himself shivering at work on a cold night, and the presidential election campaign in Brooklyn. Both Horton and March families visited them and were given tours of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, Madison Square Garden and Coney Island.

Before the visit of Ruth Horton, Jay's sister, he wrote, "Say Ruth when you come this fall don't you forget to bring us 3 or 4 boxes of yeast cakes and oblidge us, Yours in love to all, J. D."

Nettie kept a diary faithfully for the many years. A few of her entries are included here. In 1900, she opened with "January 1. Jay made two or three New Year's calls." On January 6th, they walked to Broadway in the evening to shop for clothes. She chose a pink flannel waist, black serge skirt and black sateen under skirt. He needed under drawers and heavy gloves to wear in the yard. (She wore the new waist to "a small party at Miss Wardwell's" the following week.)

There was a Poultry Show at Madison Square Garden the evening of January 31, 1900. Tickets cost them $.50, but "we enjoyed it very much." There were poultry, pigeons, ducks, geese, turkeys, rabbits, birds and lovely big cats there. And, they looked at the chickens hatching in the incubators.

On February 4th they walked to church and home in the rain, but Nettie had her "mackintosh and rubbers" to protect her. The next shopping excursion [probably a pay day] they purchased shoes and stockings for Jay. Then March 3rd, it was her turn again and "In the evening we went to Fulton St. Brooklyn and got a winter coat for me. It has a light red lining. While we were gone the iron foundry at the foot of Norman Ave. burned." It may be that Jay was paid each week, for on March 10th, it was his turn--"We went to Williamsburg in the evening and got an overcoat and hat for Jay and gloves for me."

She recorded the daily household tasks of washing, "putting out the clothes on the line", ironing, sweeping, dusting, blackening the stove and airing the feather bedding. She often described the food thay ate: baked bread, a pan of pork and beans, an apple dumpling, some little cakes, pork chops for Sunday and rice pudding. Then there were the parties, church socials, when "we had ham sandwiches, chicken salad, jelly two kinds, all kinds of nuts, apples, oranges, grapes, cake and cream, cold turkey and stuffing, potato salad, cranberrie jelly and "jelliteen", pickles, coffee or orange ale, ice cream and cake."

Scattered references to his work can be found in her diary or letters, such as "Jay's pants get heavy with oil", "the five o'clock whistle just blew, so I must hurry this and set the table."

On March 29, 1900, Jay and Nettie returned to Eden, goods all packed in barrels, on the night train. Many letters had prepared for this move back to Eden, where they would buy the Calvin T. Baker house on Hemlock Road, start a family, plant their own garden and build a green house. They bought a horse for $15.00 from Grandpa. [Probably Joel Rowley, then 73 years old.] A second horse was purchased from "Uncle Everett" [Leland] for $50.00 with a single harness and part of a double one thrown in.

Jay was planning to go into farming for a living. On April 14th they purchased a new buggy for $40.00. The next three days they both helped his parents prepare onions for the Buffalo market. Nettie rode to Buffalo with Jay arriving there at 5:30 AM after a 19 mile trip. After selling their onions they bought a stove and were given with it a wash-board, tea kettle, two iron spiders, two pancake griddles, two porcelain basins and a pie tin. Nettie also got the wall paper for their rooms. Their new life was beginning to take definite form and style, when Jay contracted typhoid fever and died suddenly.

Nettie and the two young children continued to live in the Baker house for four more years. Her own independence in milking the cow, driving the horse and buggy to church, keeping the garden and house, and sewing, filled her diary. But the strongest memories of those years for her son, were her knowledge of medicinal herbs, her steadfast faith and time given to reading her Bible daily, and her playing the reed organ and singing hymns in the evening.

Clyde and his brother Jay attended the district school on Carpenter Road. Many years later, Clyde remembered with a chuckle the school day when "someone" of the older boys led the recess prank of climbing upon the school roof to cover the chimney with a large board. As the children filed back to their seats, choking smoke began to fill the room. The perplexed teacher sent them all outside again and extended recess until the problem was solved and the air cleared. On the matter of the culprit's punishment, Clyde's memory clouded unaccountably!

After schooling at Hamburg High School, Clyde joined his father in the farm operation. He later purchased and operated the farm adjoining his father's and engaged in growing produce for the Buffalo market and ran a dairy business.

He was a member of the Board of Assessors of the Town of Eden for many years; for 30 years he took leadership in the Eden Evergreen Cemetery Association. He supported the Eden Baptist Church with his attendance and interest all of his life, serving as Trustee and Deacon.

He earned a B.S. from MIT and Harvard in civil engineering. He was drafted into the U.S. Army upon graduation during WWI. The Armistice came 6 weeks later. He and his half brother, Hugh, had a dredging business in the 1920's in Bradenton. he established his own engineering practice after the depression of the 30's. Mabel attended business college in Boston, received a teaching certificate for grammar school, and taught a few years. During the depression, while her husband traveled on engineering projects, she operated a farm and in the first year, won a first prize ribbon for her tomatoes at the FL State Fair in Tampa.

His daughter Martha, included one of her father's boyhood pranks as told in his memoirs of growing up in Bradenton when it was a small country town.

"At age ten or eleven he asked his mother to borrow the wagon. With a friend, the two boys removed the traces for the horse, mounted a mast in the wagon bed, loaded it with several sandbags and pulled it to the street after a sail was attached to the mast. A strong wind sailed them briskly the three-quarters mile distance to town down main street frightening all the horese with buggies they met. The City Fathers met, admonished them, and passed an ordinance prohibiting all sailing on the streets."

She said she had had 2 children who died. In view of this, it appears there is an error in the VR's concerning the death of a son Paul E. Then the NH VR's call Earl the 1st child (the 1st b. in NH), Roscoe the 2nd, Leon the 3rd, Blanche the 4th, but Arhtur P. the 8th. He was the 8th unless there were 2 Pauls.

He was a janitor, carpenter and building contractor. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in the home of their daughter in Stuart, FL.

The 1900 census shows that Daisy's father was b. in VT and her mother in India. A clipping in the family records tells of a family gathering of the descendants of Rev. Jeremiah Phillips, the first American Baptist missionary to India. His 11 children were born there. Those attending were: C.M. Horton and daughter, Mrs. E.L. Taylor and granddaughter Miss Grace Alena Taylor; H.M. Horton and wife and daughter, Miss Marjorie Durr Horton; Mrs. C.P. Platts and children, George, Helen and Dorothy of White City, and Dr. and Mrs. F.L. Durgin of Duluth, MN.

In recent years he had been associated in a gasoline business in Stuart. He was survived by his wife, Fern, and one daughter. "The Hortons recently observed their 50th wedding anniversary."

To distinguish amoung the three John Hortons living in Eden in 1903, he was called Morris and was so known all of his life. He was born in his great-grandfather Baker's home and lived there the first seven years of his life. After his father's death and his mother's remarriage, he moved with her and Pearl to the Clyde Horton place on Gowanda State Road, adjacent to the old John Horton (6.273) homestead and property.

He was one of two graduates from Eden High School in June 1921. Through his early years, he worked on the family farm which specalized in fruits and vegetables for the Buffalo market.

For about 25 years, he and his step-father Clyde, managed a dairy herd and milk delivery business in partnership. In 1954 he closed the dairy and took employment with the Eden Central School District.

He and his wife were honored on their Golden Wedding Anniversary Day by a large gathering of family and friends. After retirement in December 1967, he gave his attention to the cultivation of the family vinevards and orchards. He was well-known in the community for his grape, quince, pear, apple and currant crops.

He was a Bible scholar and teacher, active in the Hamburg Baptist Church. Camping, reading and traveling were his special hobbies; he and his wife enjoyed a trip to the Mediterranean islands, Israel and the Biblical archaeological sites of the Middle East. He spent a late winter vacation month in San Antonio, Texas annually after retirement. He met a sudden death, being struck by a car, while on his daily nine mile walk.

Ruth Horton Metzler

Upon the completion of his education in Eden, Vincent decided to go to California. It was 1825. He bought as his first car a new Chevrolet roadster for $500. Alone he drove across the country in 28 days; it was record driving time between Buffalo, NY and Los Angeles, CA which brought him notice in the newspapers.

He recalls that he "ran out of paved roads" in St. Joseph, MO and encountered mostly dirt roads from there westward. He stopped at Manuelito before crossing the AZ desert. Here he bought gasoline in two five gallon cans at nine cents a gallon, and water in two five gallon cans at ten cents a gallon. At the western edge of the desert, he stopped at Grants to leave the cans for the next eastbound traveler. He visited his uncle George Farmer who operated an automobile repair garage in Pasadena. Vincent sold his raodster for $600 and worked in the garage a while.

He returned to Buffalo on the Santa Fe railroad. He still remembers the meals en route for they were at Harvey House--a unique service by which the RR telegraph operator took the passengers' orders and sent them on ahead to the next stop. When the train pulled into the station, the meals would be ready and waiting.

Vincent went west again in 1926 and worked in the northwest lumbering business. For a year of so he also worked for the Canadian Pacific Railroad at building bridges.

He was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company in Lackawanna, NY from 1933-1942 as a welder and iron worker in construction. He accepted assignments from the Company which required traveling.

In 1942 he enlisted as a 1st class Boilermaker in the U.S. Navy SeaBees and was shortly promoted to Chief Petty Officer. He served in the pacific area for the duration of WWII.

Vincent left the Navy in 1947 and since them has lived in Texas. He has worked for Anslinger, Inc. supervising the installation of commercial air-conditioning systems in large buildings. In retirement he manages 200 head of cattle on a 640 acre ranch near Corpus Christi.

Dean and Nancy share complementary hobies. Dean's interests are gardening, furniture restoring, picture framing, and woodcarving. Nancy enjoys herb gardening and quilting. They both enjoy oil painting, support the Republican party and the United Church of Christ.

Dean was drafted in 1942 and retired as a Major from the Army Reserve in 1966. During this time he served in the infantry, air corps, cavalry, and armor. He was stationed in 22 installations in 19 states, and during WWII served as the Headquarters Commandant in Trinidad. He was recalled during the Korean conflict and later helped form Conneaut's National Guard Tank Co.

Nancy has served as a poll worker, on the health board and ran for school board. Dean was an unsuccessful candidate for mayor, and as a councilman, helped form the Conneaut Tree Commission to restore shade trees to the streets.

Dean was in partmership with his brother, Myles, in the Horton Vault Plant. After selling his interest, he was employed by J.H. Davis Realty; then by Allied Resins. He completed 26 years as a laboratory technician for the General Tire and Rubber Co.

Dean went with a group of men who built a church in southern Mexico and on an eight week archaeological expidition at Lachish in the Judean desert, Israel.

Dean is the only remaining male heir of his great-grandfather William Peters Horton. Thus the ninth generation ends with another family that has daughtered-out.

APPENDIX D

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS TO VOLUME I

Introduction

p.vi Change: 265 Hixville Road to 264 Hixville Road

p.ix Change: Teele, "History of Milton" to Hamilton, "History of Milton" p. 28

p.xiii Change: Polulation to Population

First Generation

p.1 1.1 Second ¶: Add: The first four pages of the Milton town records were lost before 1838.

p.2 1.1 Fourth ¶: Add: I have obtained a copy of the original deed from John Fenno to Thomas Horton.

The land is described as in the first three divisions on the south side of the Neponset River and now in the township of Milton and bounded on the north with land of Enoch Badcock and partly with the highway that goes by Peter White's house, on the east with land of Thomas Horton where his dwelling house now stands, southerly with the Braintree line and westerly with the land of Peter White. The sale was for the land and the wood and lumber from the wood on the said land. The date is illegible in my copy of the deed. Signed by John and Rachel Fenno, witnessed by Thomas Vose and Nathaniel Pitcher. The signatures were acknowledged 23 July 1695 and the deed recorded -- Aug. 1695 (Suffolk Deeds 17:124)

John Fenno's will shows that he owned several other pieces of land in Milton and Dorchester, none described as being bounded by the above land. The deed when Fenno purchased the above land was not found.

The deeds of James Haughton were also examined in consideration of the discussion on page 211 as to the possibility of his being an uncle to Thomas Horton. On 5 Oct. 1665 Nicholas Allin and Mary his wife, former wife of Robert Pond, this being land that had belonged to Robert Pond, sold for £75 to James Haughton house and lands in Milton in two lots. "... the one whereon the house standeth, abutting on the highway Southward, Neponset River Northward, the land of Robert Badcock on the west & the lands of Augustin Cleomen't on the East, The other lott bounded w'th Neponset River on the North; w'th a smale lott of Thomas Swifts on the South with land of Robert Vose on the left & with the land of Robert Badcocke on the East which said two lotts conteines forty fiue acres..." (Suffolk Deeds 4:316)

An examination of the deed from Thomas Horton of Rehoboth to his son David Horton of Milton, weaver, shows that the 25 acres of land with the dwelling house was bounded northward by land belonging to the heirs of Enoch Badcock, (David's wife was one of these heirs) eastward by the land now in possession of Joseph Hunt, southward by the Braintree line and westward by land of Peter White. There was a bridle way allowed through said land by Badcock's line. Dated 12 March 1712. Thomas Horton acknowledged his signature before Noah Paine, J.P. on 1 Sept. 1714. The deed was not recorded until 15 Jan. 1752 (after David's death). (Ibid. 80:175)

p.3 1.1 Thomas Horton died after 1 Sept. 1714, see above deed.

In Torrey, Clarence A., "New England Marriages Prior to 1700", 1985, p.389, he suggests, with a question, that Katherine Harrison was the widow of Henry Harrison. The film of Torrey's full MS, however, gives no reference for this statement.

Second Generation

p.4 3.7, 3.8 Change: ficitious to fictitious p.6 2.5 Add: Mary (Badcock) Horton d. after March 1738

Signed by David and Mary Horton, witnessed by Philip and Mary White. (Suffolk Deeds 59:11)

On 14 March 1740 David Horton of Milton, weaver, "... in consideration of the Love and Parental affection which I have and do bear unto my Son Joseph Horton of Milton aforesaid weaver..." and for £30 he sold to Joseph five acres in Milton, a part of the homestead, bounded on the south by the old Braintree line, east by land of Edward Adams, north and west by his own remaining land, north and west by "...the Backside of my Dwelling House on the Northwesterly End and measuring from thence --- feet North and from the End of the said Five feet to the Stretch a Line Westward Parallel to the Braintree Old Line aforementioned until it comes to the Land of Edward Adams aforesaid and then beginning on the Westerly End of my Dwelling House and measure from thence West Sixteen feet and one Half and from thence to Stretch a line Southward Parallel to Edward Adams Line aforesaid until it comes to Braintree Old Line aforementioned. And then these two last described Lines beginning on the North and West Parts of my Dwelling House aforementioned being Extended Westward and Northward until they meet in an angle to be the Northerly and Westerly bounds of the Premisses. Together with my Dwelling House Buildings Orchards Gardens Profits Priviledges and appurtenances unto the same..." Signed by David Horton, witnessed by Nehemiah Clap and Philip White. (Ibid. 62:41)

In May 1741 David Horton of Milton, weaver, for love and goodwill gave to his son Enoch Horton of Milton, one acre of land in the NW corner of the homelot, 1½ rods wide at the north end, and bounded by land of heirs of William Badcock, and land of Benjamin Horton and Philip White, land valued at £15 and given as part of his estate. Signed by David Horton, witnessed by Philip and Mary White. (Ibid. 61:210)

On 14 Oct. 1741 David Horton of Milton, weaver for love, good will and affection for son David Horton, yoeman, gave him 3 acres in the SW corner of the homelot, bounded on the south by the Braintree line, east by Joseph Horton, west by Philip White and north by the brink of the hill and leaving a bridle way to the county road, the land valued at £60 and part of his portion of my estate. Signed by David Horton, witnessed by Enoch Horton and Edward Adams. (Ibid. 73:7)

On 21 Jan. 1752 administration of the estate of David Horton of Milton, weaver, deceased was granted to David Horton of Milton, weaver. The notice states that David Sr. died intestate. (Suffolk Probate 45:680)

The inventory of the estate of David Horton was taken on 3 March 1752 by Samuel Tucker, Benj'a Wadsworth and David Rawson. It totaled £144-11-04. (Ibid. 46:130) The inventory included, in part: To looms, tackling & weaving Bais at £1-8-0; To a spinning wheel and five old chairs £0-6-8; To a small barn £4-13-4; To thirteen acres & a hundred & fifteen rods £93; To old house where Joseph Horton lives & 4 acres & half of land £26-13-4.

David Horton, Jr's accounts, as administrator of his father's estate, show dealings with various people such as Enoch Horton, Philip White's estate, Samuel White, David's daughter Mary for services in 1749, 1750 and 1751 for milking, washing etc. £1-04-00; Benjamin Horton, a bond due to Thomas Horton of £4-08-00; and John Marshall all dated 16 March 1753 (Ibid. 47:518) p.12 4.33 Add: +; change Cordellay (-) Ingalls to Cordellay Ann (BULLOCK) Ingalls.

p.13 3.6 Add: Mary Martin was the daughter of John and Mercy (-)(Thurber) Martin; the granddaughter of either Stutely Stafford by an unknown wife or of his sister, Mercy Stafford and an unknown husband; great granddaughter of Samuel Stafford and the great-great granddaughter of Stukely/Stutely Westcott. Both spellings of Stukely appear in the primary records, while the descendants in NS have used the Stutely spelling. When Samuel Stafford wrote his will in 1711 he had at least 16 living grandchildren, yet he mentioned only three: Mercy Thurber, Mary Stafford and Marcey Smith. Mrs. Linda Garrison, after researching primary records in Salt Lake City, reasons that these three are the children of Samuel Stafford's deceased children, Stutely and Mercy. There is evidence that Stutely did not die young, as given by Austin, and lived long enough to marry a Barbara and have Mercy and Mary. (Warwick, RI Probate) Mercy (Stafford or otherwise) m.(1) Richard Thurber and had a son Edward Thurber b. 1710. Mercy (Stafford or ?) Thurber m.(2) John Martin in 1713.

If Nathan was married, his wife should have signed some of the above deeds. However, it must be noted that his brothers Hezekiah and Stafford sold land during the same period and their wives did not sign some of the deeds one would expect them to sign.

He appointed his friend Isaiah How of Milton as executor. Signed by Enoch Horton, witnessed by Ebenezer Horton, Benjamin Badcock and Elizabeth Badcock. (Suffolk Probate 68:208)

The inventory of the estate was returned to the court on 29 Sept. 1769 by William Tucker, Jeremiah Tucker and William Badcock. The total was £582-6-1. Enoch Horton's estate was divided on 30 April 1770. Widow Hepzibah received all of the rooms of the mansion house with half of the cellars under it, the garden in front of the house as the fence stands, with the northeast half of the barn, with the privilege of the well and yard assigned as commonage for the convenience of all the heirs, as her third. She also received another 16 acres of farm and wood land fully described. Elijah Horton received all of the chambers and garrets and half of the cellar of the mansion house, the other half of the barn and some land fully described. They then divided the remainder of the real estate between the other children, Enoch, Stephen, Samuel, Elisha, William, Wadsworth and Ann Horton, each receiving a specified parcel or parcels of land. (Suffolk Deeds 73:42-47)

On 7 May 1779 Stephen Horton of Milton, cordwainer was appointed guardian of Wadsworth, William,

Isaac and Ann Horton, minor children above the age of 14, children of Enoch Horton, late of Milton, deceased. John Marshall and Thomas Badcock, yeoman of Milton gave bond with Stephen. (Suffolk Probate 78:589)

The marriage in 1772 of a Hepzibah Horton to Joseph Houghton seems to refer to Enoch's widow. (see p.246) On 14 Jan. 1778, widow Hepzibah Houghton sold 4 acres of woodland in Milton to Joseph Vose. Signed Hepzibah Houghton, witnessed by Stephen Horton and Samuel Horton. (Suffolk Deeds 128:160) Enoch's widow had received 6 acres more or less of woodland in the division of the real estate. This deed was recorded 4 May 1778 at the same time as two deeds by Samuel Horton, cordwainer, who sold the land he had received from his father's estate. One piece of Samuel's land is described as bounded by land of Hepzibah Houghton.

The MVR's give the death for Hepzibah Houghton as 18 Jan. 1810 age 92 years, thus b. ca 1718. This does not agree with the birth date for Hepzibah Wadsworth, nor does it explain the death of a Hepzibah Horton on 30 July 1790. Enoch's daughter, Hepzibah 4.72, most certainly had died before her father as she is not named in his will or in the division of his lands and all of the other children are listed. In the vital records the 19 Jan. 1749/50 death was listed as a daughter of Enoch and Hepzibah. No age was given with the 30 July 1790 death of a Hepzibah. This could be Elijah, Jr's daughter Hepzibah (5.168) and if so, then the 1810 death of Hepzibah Houghton is most certainly that of Enoch's widow. Yet, in the following probate records for Enoch, Jr., his mother, Hepzibah, was still refered to as Hepzibah Horton in 1779, probably a slip on the part of the clerk. It must also be noted that in England, Horton and Houghton are considered the same surname, and pronounced the same way.

p.17 4.73 On 26 Feb. 1779 Stephen Horton of Milton, cordwainer, was appointed administrator of the estate of Enoch Horton, late of Milton, yeoman, deceased intestate. Ebenezer Badcock of Milton, cordwainer and Joseph Baxter of Braintree, gentleman gave bond with Stephen. (Suffolk Probate 68:564) On 9 April 1779 Enoch's inventory was returned by Brinsmead Hunt, Lemuel How and William Badcock. It included: 2 acres 16 rods of upland & tillage land in Milton £11-00-00; ½ of an old corn barn £9-00-00; 5 acres woodland in Braintree £55-00-00; 1½ acres of salt marsh in Braintree £43-06-08; Total £ 218-06-08. No personal estate was found. (Ibid. 68:234)

On 14 May 1779 the estate was divided between Hepzibah Horton, widow, Samuel, William, Isaac, Wadsworth, Ann and Elijah Horton, each receiving £21-7s and to Stephen as administrator £25-15-6. (Ibid. 68:91)

p.17 4.79 Wadsworth died between 1781 and Dec. 1789. No probate or deeds found.

Signed by Ebenezer and Patience Wadsworth, witnessed by Jon'o Wadsworth and Enoch Horton. (Suffolk deeds 68:133) On 19 June 1745 it was noted that in the above deed no mention was made of the quantity of land. The tracts contained 31½ acres in all. Signed by Ebenezer Wadsworth, witnessed by Ezek Goldshwart and Ezekiel Price. (Ibid. 70:237)

Signed by Benjamin and Patience Horton, witnessed by John and Mary Horton. On 5 June 1772 Mrs. Hannah Badcock, administrator of William Badcock, acknowledged she had received full satisfaction. (Ibid. 118:131)

On 6 March 1771 Benjamin Horton of Milton, gentleman, for £256-13-04 sold to Henry Wild of Roxbury, yeoman, 22 acres of land containing orchard, pasturing, mowing and tillage with dwelling house, barn and shop; bounded by the Taunton Road, Benjamin Turner, Benjamin Sumner, widow Elizabeth Blake, David Sumner and Noah Dammon; also, 5½ acres of pasture on the same road; also 4 acres of woodland

His wife, Patience was to have the improvements and income from all of his real estate, with all of the buildings thereon, for her own use for life. She was also to have all household movables and live stock for life. At Patience's death, the estate was to be divided between the children or their heirs according to the law. It is possible that the Hannah Horton (6.102), placed as daughter of Abel (5.50) before I knew of this Asa Horton of Danby, could be the daughter of Asa by an earlier wife. The probate records fail to indicate any heirs.

The inventory of Asa Horton, deceased, included: personal: 3 bottles £0-3-0; real estate: 10 acres of land joining Amos Colvin on the west and William Edmonds on the north £2-0-0; 30 acres of land south of the highway from Danby to Pawlet opposite Joshua Colvins £12-15-0; and 30 acres of land south of Elisha Andrus £10-10-10. p.36 5.86 Add: +. Although continuing research has failed to locate any positive proof that the Isaac Horton of Cheshire, MA was the son of Benjamin 4.23, neither has any evidence been found, in any way to indicate, he was not Benjamin's son. Therefore, I am placing Isaac b. ca 1744-59 as a son of Benjamin and will continue the descendants as such. See Appendix E, Fifth Generation. p.41 4.36 Remove: Anna Cleaves as wife of Isaiah. Mrs. Linda Garrison researched the Essex Co. MA Probate records, and numerous Nova Scotia deeds and other records. Ebenezer Cleaves, weaver, of Beverly, in his will of 3 April 1755 names all of his children, living and dead and his grandchildren. From this will, it is clear that his daughter Anna had died without issue. (Essex Probate)

There was another Anna Cleaves, dau. of Ambrose and Mary (Taylor) Cleaves of Beverly. She m.(1) 2 Nov. 1762 Stephen Haskell, m.(2) 27 Nov. 1769 Elias Cook Jr. They had Cook children b. in Beverly from 1770 - 1780 and several others after moving to NS. Their second child, Lydia m. William Horton 5.137. Elias Cook Jr. died 25 Aug. 1797. Isaiah Horton could not have married this Anna Cleaves until after this date, and by then she was 55 years old and could not be the mother of any of his children.

This leaves us with the conclusion that Isaiah did marry 14 Feb. 1762 Glocester, RI, ANNE WOOD, b. 16 Feb. 1742 Glocester; dau. of William and Anna (Collins) Wood of Warwick and Glocester, RI. Ann's brother John Wood is also listed in the 1770 Sackville census. The following deeds make it appear that they left for NS about the summer of 1763. Anne Wood Horton was living in Guysborough as of 31 July 1794 when she signed with her husband a testimonal to having signed a deed dated 8 Sept. 1785. Isaiah Horton was still living in Guysborough on 23 Dec. 1808 when he sold his grant of land located in Pictou Co. Isaiah bought, sold and traded quite a bit of land in NS. He was called "yeoman" in most of the deeds; however in a deed dated 15 Jan. 1793 in which he sold to Peter Delaroche of Guysborough, clerk, his 100 acre tract of land at Salmon River, granted to Isaiah on 17 May 1787, he was called a "seaman".

On 13 Feb. 1761 Nathan Herenden of Glocester, RI, yeoman, for £1500 paid by Isaiah Horton of Scituate, RI, yeoman, sold 44½ acres of land bounded by stones and the grantees land. Signed by Nathan and Charity Herenden, withessed by Timothy and Penelope Hopkins. (Glocester, RI deeds 7:236)

On 3 May 1763 Isaiah Horton of Glocester, yeoman, for £2500 paid by Eldad Hunter of Scituate, sold 44½ acres now described as bounded in part by land of John Wells and James Round. Signed by Isaiah Horton and Anne Horton, witnessed by Joseph and Sarah Smith. (Ibid. 7:244)

Patterson's "History of Pictou, NS" has a Roll or Inhabitants able to Bear Arms as of 12 Feb. 1783. The list incudes "Esaias and Stoatly Horton". Mrs. Garrison believes is is Isaiah himself and not a son. Stutely was married within a year of this date, so he was surely of age to bear arms, and his wife was 26. She believes Stutely was the eldest son and that Josh was wrong in calling Isaiah the eldest son, that he was really the father. It is possible that Stutely was born before they went to

Nova Scotia. Isaiah, Jr.'s sons death record says that Isaiah Jr. was born "at sea", most likely meaning on the voyage to NS.

Mrs. Garrison found Stutely buying and selling land in Musquodoboit till near 1827 but he was not in the 1827 census for that town. However, the 1827 census does list a Houton Horton and Walford Horton, both evidently men in the 45-55 range, both with families and probably too old to be sons of Stutely and Hannah. Since they were unknown to Josh as they were not of Guysborough, they were not included in the family list. Mrs. Garrison proposes the following list of children for Isaiah and Anne (Wood) Horton, the order based on the marriage dates. Mrs. Garrison did not know that Isaiah was b. at sea. I believe he should be the first or second child. (1) Stutley b. ca 1763; (2) William b. ca 1765; (3) Anne b. ca 1767; (4) Isaiah b. ca 1769; (5) Hezekiah b. ca 1769; (6) Houghton b. ca 1773; (7) Mary b. ca 1775; (8) George b. ca 1777; (9) Walford b. ca 1780; (10) Charles b. 2 Dec. 1785 Guysborough

Signed by Samuel and Reliance Billing, witnessed by Elijah Dunbar and Mary Billing. "A few years back a Massachusetts hardware salesman named Stuart Goldman bought a trunk which, he believed, had been sealed since 1799. When he opened it, he found...(silhouettes of Revolutionary soldiers)...; the artist, known only as 'F.C.' ...(Goldman) eventually learned that the initials stood for Frederick Chapman...(who) apparently worked the military camps in upstate New York, charging a few pennies for his quick, deft likenesses. (Goldman could find nothing on Stephen Horton)...save that he was a sergeant, and survived the war to prosper sufficently to give his wife, Submit, shown beside him, a silver tea service in 1790. The silhouettes have a charm and immediacy often lacking in the detailed and carefully composed formal portraits of the era. Done hastily and on the spot, they still manage to convey a vivid sense of those who fought the war." ©1979 American Heritage Publishing Co., Inc., from "American Heritage", June/July 1979. p.46 5.182 The probate records show that the death date in the Milton vital records is wrong. Samuel d. bef. 7 Oct. 1828 leaving a widow, SARAH. He was a druggist. Sarah has not been found in the census.

On 7 Oct. 1828, Sarah Horton says that it is inconvenient to administer the eatate of Mr. Samuel Horton, Jr. late of Boston, deceased and requests that "my son Enoch Horton" be appointed. [This should read "my brother-in-law Enoch Horton" as Samuel Jr's mother was Mary/Polly and later records show that the estate was administered by Samuel's brother, Enoch. Sarah must be the widow of Samuel, Jr.] Witnessed by Charles R. Kennedy. Then Artemas Kennedy requests that "my brother Enoch Horton" be appointed administrator of the goods and estate of my late brother Samuel Horton Jr. as requested above. (Suffolk Probate 126:408)

On 13 Oct. 1828 Enoch Horton of New Bedford, Bristol Co., MA, baker, petitioned the court to be administrator of the estate of Samuel Horton, late of Boston, druggist, died intestate, the petitioner being the only brother of the deceased. On 25 Dec. 1829 Enoch Horton of New Bedford, Ephraim Marsh, housewright, and John J. Brown, druggist of Boston ask to sell all of the real estate in order to discharge the just debts, for by a partial sale, the widow would be greatly injured. (Ibid. 347:45)

On 15 Jan. 1830 Enoch Horton notified the court that the real estate, a 67' lot on Washington Street with several buildings on it, consisting of several shops with a hall called Pantheon Hall, and a large brick stable, will be sold on 15 Jan. 1830 at 12 o'clock. (Ibid. 128:58)

p.51 5.221 Add: On 20 Oct. 1812 Tabitha Horton said that she did not wish to be administrator of the estate of Stephen Horton, late of Templeton, and asked that her son Simeon be made administrator. (Worcester Probate 233:409)

p.51 4.111 Add: More evidence has been found to substantiate Mary/Molly Dean as Joseph's second wife. Emily (Horton 7.787) Buswell, Joseph's great-granddaughter, and second wife of Cyrus Buswell, son of Sarah (Horton 5.227) Buswell, grandson of Joseph Horton, wrote the following in her family manuscript: "Joseph Jr. married 2nd a widow Rolfe whose maiden name was Molly Dean. Her first husband was a Thompson. She had one son- Seth Thompson. Her second husband was Rolfe. She had three children- Polly- Daniel and Thomas Rolfe. Joseph and Molly Dean Rolfe Horton had two children-" (Buswell MS p.5) Cyrus Buswell had his parents, John and Sarah (Horton) Buswell living with him in 1850. Cyrus was b. in Jaffrey in 1820, close to the time his grandmother died. He should have known his grandfather Joseph Horton, Jr. who died in 1841. And certainly, Sally knew who her mother was and we hope would have told her son. With this evidence, written by this closly related family, I now feel certain that Joseph's wife was Molly Dean.

p.52 5.225, 5.226 Add: Emily Buswell wrote the following about her aunt and uncle: "Eben son of Joseph Jr. and Hannah Horton married Dec. 14, 1802 Ruth Foster of Templeton. They had a son Joseph who was adopted by his great-uncle Jonathan and wife of Templeton- when his father Eben became insane- from which he never recovered. His father Jos.Jr. taking care of him and his sister Hannah who was also insane- There were no asylums then and they had to be chained for years before they died." (Buswell MS p.5b) p.53 5.235 Add: Jonathan Baldwin, Job Whitcomb and Ruth Horton deposed that on 29 Sept. 1813, Artemas Horton of Templeton made the following non-cupative will. Artemas said it was his will that his brother Jonas should have his best great coat and his watch, that the remainder of his wearing apparel be divided between his 2 brothers Jonas and Asa; sister Esther was to have the bed he lay upon, 2 blankets, 2 sheets, 2 coverlets, 2 great coverlet and 1 rag coverlet; that Ruth Horton should live with her Aunt Horton so long as she lived and assist in taking care of her and have her support and at the decease of her aunt, to have $200 to be paid out of his estate.

On 10 Oct. 1813 Adonijah Horton, the only person interested in the estate of Artemas Horton, who died without issue and unmarried; being present and by his consent, and the above witnesses to the non-cupative will of Artemas said he was of sound mind, the will was allowed. (Worcester Probate 43:229) Artemas's inventory showed real estate valued at $1,834 and personal property valued at $1,692.86. (Ibid. 44:497)

There were two Ruth Hortons in Templeton, Jonathan's widow (4.109) and Ebenezer's widow (5.226). It seems most likely that Artemas was providing additional support for his cousin Ebenezer's widow. Aunt Horton was probably Ruth widow of Jonathan as Artemas had received the major portion of Jonathan's estate. (See the will of Jonathan 4.109, p.21 above.)

This mortgage was secured by 50 acres of land in the gore between Adams and Stamford, a part of the lot Edward Hunter bought of Benjamin Beth----. The payment to be made by 1 Sept. next. Signed by Elisha Hunter, witnessed by Samuel Ingalls and Stephen Ingalls. (Berkshire Co. p.63 6.18 Add: +; change THIAL to RIAL/ROYAL, see Appendix E, Sixth Generation p.63 5.5 "Hortons in America" considered Jonathan A. Horton of Susquehanna Co., PA to be a descendant of Barnabas Horton of Long Island, even though no one had been able to establish the line. I believe the preponderance of evidence indicates that Jonathan Horton of Marlborough, VT, known to have gone to Susquenahnna Co., PA where his son Jonathan was m. in 1832, is the same man as Jonathan A. Horton.

The most conclusive pieces of evidence are the time of the second marriage; that Jonathan and Susannah had a son Hathaway, and that the Jonathan A. of PA, is said to have a son Hathaway, by a first wife; Jonathan and Polly have a daughter Fanny, b. ca 1797 according to the census, birth place confused in the census. She is too old to be Polly's child and the birth year places her in the right place in the list of children of first wife, Susannah. Both Jonathan 6.28 and Samuel, son of Jonathan A. and Polly, are in Choconut, PA at about the same time. Family records of Josephine Horton Nye and Rita Horton show Jonathan's middle name as Alanson, a name perpetuated by the descendants of Jonathan 6.28. The Hist. of Marlborough, VT gave Jonathan and Susannah a son Jeremiah, while the PA Jonathan and his unknown first wife were said to have had a son David. I can find nothing more in PA on Hathaway or Jeremiah but there was a David on the tax lists with Jonathan, Jr. Additionally, family records of Josephine Horton Nye, 8.0179, say: "Jonathan married a girl of German descent -- was disinherited -- moved to Binghamton, New York then near Montrose, Pennsylvania. Had two sons, David and Jonathan. First wife died; then married Polly Fairbrother. Had many children. Jonathan died at 40. George Washington Horton...went to live with his half brother David in Dubuque, Iowa." [If the part about the German girl is true, then, Jonathan and Jonathan A. are not the same man. There was a David Horton in the 1840 Dubuque census.] On the positive side, Mrs. Nye also shows the father of George Washington Horton (6.31e) is Jonathan Alanson Horton. Jonathan, Jr. (6.28) named a son Jonathan Alanson. If Mrs. Nye is correct, then this boy was named for his grandfather, Jonathan of Marlboro, VT and Suquehanna Co., PA. See Appendix E, Fifth Generation for the family of Jonathan 5.5 and his second wife Polly Fairbrother.

p.63 6.27 It must be noted that the Fanny Horton, living in the home of Simon Slyter, the second husband of Polly (Fairbrother) Horton, in 1850 and 1860 is probably this Fanny. (See Appendix E, 5.5 Jonathan for the full census.) Who ever informed the census enumerator of the family birth places, made several obvious errors, thus it seems most likely that the pauper, Fanny, was the daughter of Jonathan 5.5 and his first wife Susannah. She probably died before 1870.

p.63 6.28, 6.29, 6.30 The question arises if David of the Susquehanna Co., tax lists is really either Hathaway or Jeremiah, sons of Jonathan (5.5) only recorded in the History of Marlborough, VT. [This book was written long after the family left town, and there is no indication where the author found his data, perhaps from an elderly resident or in church records, but not in the vital records.] The following records would seem to indicate David was a close relative. Jonathan (6.28) is on the Susquehanna Co. tax assessment books from 1824-1842, listed as single in 1824. In 1827 he is listed with David Horton, single, as if they owned joint property. In 1830 David had 50 acres and Jonathan 30, in 1831 David 2 acres and Jonathan 30 acres, then in 1832 they are again listed together with 80 acres, and Jonathan with an additional 39 acres; in 1833 Jonathan had 94 acres and David 75; and in 1834 David was again noted as single, freeman. Their half-brother, Samuel was first taxed in 1837.

On 10 Oct 1836, Caleb Carmalt and wife Sarah deeded 100 acres in Choconut Twp, for $500, to Jonathan Horton. (Susquehanna Co., PA deeds 10:117)

On 4 May 1841 Jonathan Horton and wife Polly E. sold the above 100 acres, for $100, to Patrick Madden. (Ibid. 13:93)

A deed of Release of Mortgage held by David Horton against Jonathan Horton, dated 17 June 1845 and originally executed 26 Aug. 1837 by Jonathan Horton, Silver Lake Twp., to David Horton, Choconut Twp., for $390, of which $195 to be paid in four years from date with interest, and in consideration assigns the land described in the preceeding two deeds as security. (Ibid. 15:147)

David Horton acknowledged full payment of $195 and interest, before Presiding Judge T.S. Wilson, 3rd Judicial District of the Territory of Iowa [territory 1838-46] in which is the county of Dubuque. (Ibid. 15:148) David is not in the 1850 Iowa census index. George W. (6.31e) was said to have gone to Dubuque with his half-brother David.

Levi Horton wrote his will on 8 June 1840. He directed his executors to sell the personal property except furniture and cooking utensils. They were also to sell a 10 acre mowing lot and a 25 acre wood lot. If this was not enough to pay the debts, then they were to sell what ever else was necessary. He gave to wife Hannah, 2 cows, the household furniture and cooking utensils and use and improvements on real estate not sold. If more money was raised than necessary, then son Stephen was to have not over $100, and any money over $100 was to go to wife Hannah. He then gave to daughters Nancy Temple, Hannah Maria Horton and Lucy Horton and sons Stephen Horton and James Horton the remaining real estate after their mother's death in equal shares. He gave to wife Hannah the family stores and provisions as are on hand and the crops growing as necessary for the use of the family. He appointed his brother-in-law John Anderson and neighbor Lemuel Howe to be executors. Signed by Levi Horton, witnessed by Joseph Mason, Samuel F. Fisk and Edwin Hawkes. (Worcester Co. Probate 84:206) Hannah Horton, widow, Nancy Temple, daughter, Daniel Temple, husband of Nancy, Hannah M. Horton, Lucy Horton and Stephen Horton children of Levi all signed that they did not object to the will and approved the executors. The will was approved the 1st Tues. of July 1840. (Ibid. 84:208)

On 1 March 1841 Hannah Maria Horton and Lucy Horton, minors above the age of 14, children of Levi Horton of Templeton, made choice of Hannah Horton, widow of Templeton, to be their guardian. (Ibid. 233:407)

On 13 March 1841 Hannah Horton, asked to be guardian of her minor children, Hannah M. Horton, Lucy Horton and James Horton (James under age 14), and the bond was posted. (Ibid. 239:157)

In 1860, Hannah (Anderson) Horton, age 71 b. MA, was living in Orange, Franklin Co., MA with her son James A.

William Horton, Jr. may be the William in the 1830 Troy, MA census with a family of M 1 10/15, 1 50/60, F 1 15/20, 4 20/30, 1 50/60. Then in the 1840 Fall River census there was a William with M 2 0/5, 1 60/70, F 1 20/30, 1 30/40, 1 60/70. If this is this William, the females may have been boarders or daughters-in-law with their children. These records do not seem to fit any other William, yet there should be more young boys at home in 1830.

Some William, b. Rehoboth, was the father of RACHAEL Horton, b. ca 1796 Rehoboth; d. 26 Oct. 1880 age 84 y. of old age. (State copy of RVR) Arnold lists this death as Rachael, wife of William, but she is clearly unm., dau. of William in the state record. She has not been found in the 1850 and 1860 census. In 1870 and 1880 she was living in the Rehoboth Alms House.

Recorded 23 April 1812 and signed by Zenas Horton. (Ibid. 10:158)

These first two deeds in Zenas's name give no hint as to his former residence.

NEW HORTON FAMILIES

FOURTH GENERATION

4.65 NATHAN HORTON (David 3.17, 2.5; Thomas 1.1) was b. 31 July 1745 MVR; d. 22 Jan. 1777 MVR.
He m. 18 April 1768 MARTHA MARSHALL, b. 14 May 1742 MVR; d. Jan. 1790+; dau. of John and Martha (Horton 3.26) Marshall.

See Volume I p.16 for information previously published on this family. Nathan and Martha were first cousins. Martha was probably the Mrs. Horton in the 1790 Milton census with a family of 2F.

On 28 Jan. 1790, widow Martha Horton brought suit against Samuel Horton (4.75). For details, see Appendix F, additions to p.46.

There is no proof that John and Elizabet Horton of Chester, VT were children of Nathan and Martha, but it possible that they were. Now that it has been proven that John of Chester was not John 5.52, the next most likely ancestry is in this family. Martha Marshall Horton had two brothers, John and Elijah Marshall, who were early settlers of Chester, VT. It is quite possible that John and Elizabeth went to Chester with their unlces, and their parents' first cousin, Adonijah Horton 4.113.

4.67 JOTHAM HORTON (David 3.17, 2.5; Thomas 1.1) was bp. 16 July 1749 Milton; d. bef. 18 Aug. 1795 Boston.
He m. 1 March 1772 Boston, VR, SARAH FRANCIS; d. after Dec. 1832.

The following deeds and probate records are for a Jotham Horton with wife Sarah or Sally, but fail to prove he was the Jotham of Milton. It must be noted that if Francis was his son, then Jotham, Sr. named a daughter Dorcas for his mother.

Jotham was in the 1790 Boston census with a family of M 4 +16, 3 -16 and 5 F. He and Sarah were probably the parents of the Jotham, Francis, Phebe and Dorcas given below. From the census, it would appear there may have been several more children. The 1800 Boston census has been lost.

"Hortons in Am." said Jotham worked on the 44-gun frigate "Constitution" or "Old Ironsides" as she was known. The frigate was launched 21 Oct. 1797. Congress authorized the building of six frigates, including the Constitution, on 27 March 1794. Jotham could easily have done some of the early iron work on the frigate. His deeds show dealings with ship builders.

Jothan seems to have bought and sold many small lots, just the size for row houses. A look at these old row houses shows a large amount of iron work on then.

In every record, except the first, Jotham was always called "of Boston, blacksmith". These words will be omitted hereafter.

On 17 Dec. 1782 Mary March of Boston, widow, for £130, sold to Jotham Horton, gentleman, a lot with 55' 4" on South St. and 102' 7" deep, by land of Elizabeth wife of Gowen Brown, and 55' 4" by land of John Sprague and John Hill Esq. Signed by Mary March, witnessed by Thomas Crafts and Nath'l Cudworth. (Suffolk Deeds 139:183)

On 22 Feb. 1785 Jotham Horton, for £700, sold to Eben'r Parsons of Boston, merchant, Theopholis Parsons Esq. of Newburyport and William Parsons of Boston, merchant, land in Boston with 55' 4" on South St. and 120' 7" deep with all the buildings thereon, land purchased of Mary March on 13 Dec. 1782. Signed by Jotham and Sarah Horton, witnessed by Henry Sibley and Henry Alline, Jr. (Ibid. 147:163)

Another deed dated 9 March 1786 shows the purchase of the above land from William Cheever for £60, and gives a full description of the lot. (Ibid. 159:200)

On 10 March 1786 Jotham Horton mortgaged for £60 plus interest, with William Cheever, some land in the north end of Boston near the Battery with 25' 6" on Fore St., a small lot going back to Battery alley, on the condition that Jotham pay the mortgage by 10 March 1787 on penality of £120. Signed by Jotham and Sally Horton, witnessed by Henry Alline, Jr. and Henry Sibley. On 15 Sept. ---- Elizabeth Cheever, widow and administrator of William Chever, acknowledged the debt was paid. (Ibid. 156:136)

On 11 Aug. 1786 Francis Wright of Boston, for £180, sold to Jotham Horton a 60' lot on Lynn St. bounded on the south by land of William Parkman and Thomas Daggett, on the west, 39' 6" by Thomas Daggett, on the north, 115' by John Huntone, with the dwelling house, out houses and other improvements thereon. Signed by Francis and Mary Wright, witnessed by Betsey Gardner ad Samuel Barrett. (Ibid. 159:201)

On 10 April 1788 Samuel Smith of Boston, baker, for £300 silver money, sold to Jotham Horton some land in northerly Boston with 20' 8" on Ship St. and 120' deep. Signed by Samuel and Hannah Smith, witnessed by Samuel Barnett and Abraham Quincy. (Ibid. 163:44)

On 3 Nov. 1790 Jotham Horton, for £80, sold to Joseph Clark, shipwright, land in the north part of Boston on Ship St., bought of Samuel Smith. The lot was 20' 8" x 120'. Signed by Jotham Horton, witnessed by Joseph Gardner & John Lash. (Ibid. 169:62)

On 27 Oct. 1791 Jotham for £200 sold to Joseph Clark of Boston, shipwright, a lot 20' 8" on Ship Streed and 120' deep [but not an even shape] as the fences now stand. Signed by Jotham and Sarah Horton, witnessed by Joseph Gardner and Samuel Harris. (Ibid. 171:5)

On 10 March 1792 Jotham Horton for £237 11s 10p 3f [f probably meams farthing valued at ¼p], sold to Eben Parsons of Boston, merchant, land with 50' on Lynn St. and 152' deep with the dwelling house, out house and other inprovements except the incomberance on the well. Also some land in the north end of Boston near the Battery on Fore St. This lot was 25' x 56' and 39' 4" across the back. This sale was actually a mortage secured by the land and he agreed to pay the sum to Parsons in 12 months with interest. Signed by Jotham Horton, his wife, unnamed, released her dower, witnessed by Samuel Barett and Ellis Gray. On 28 June 1796 Eben Parsons declared the mortgage fully paid. (Ibid. 177:187)

On 2 Oct. 1792 Jothan Horton, for £72, sold to Samuel Yendell of Boston, boat builder, some land in northerly Boston with 40' on Lynn St. and 50' deep. Signed by Jotham and Sally Horton, witnessed by John Lord and Thomas Sprague. (Ibid. 179:45)

On 18 Aug. 1795 the inventory of Jotham Horton, deceased, was presented in court by Sarah Horton, administrator. The personal property totaled £22-16-09 and the real estate including a dwelling house and land on Ship St. in North Boston £900-00-00. (Suffolk Probate 94:113)

On 7 Sept. 1795 Jotham Horton's widow Sarah received her dower. She received the back part of the dwelling house on Lynn St. in the north part of Boston, a part of the land with privilege to the well and pump. (Ibid. 94:121)

On 11 May 1796, Sarah Horton reported that the estate was insolvent and asked to sell some real estate to pay the debts. (Ibid. 94:328) The real estate was sold for $1566.66 to Ellis Cook of Boston, mariner on 17 June 1796. It consisted of land and buildings on Lynn Streer except the widows dower portion. The mortgage to Eben Parrons of $1025.84 was paid plus other debts, 9 Aug. 1796. (Ibid. 94:438; Suffolk Deeds 183:209)

CHILDREN: by wife Sarah Francis, based on the various records for sons Jotham, Jr. and Francis:

5.167e ELIZABETH bp. 21 May 1775 First Unitarian Church, dau. of Jotham, Medford, VR

+5.167f JOTHAM b. ca 1778 Boston

5.167g FRANCIS b. ca 1785 MA; d. 1 Dec. 1832 - 18 Aug. 1854, prob. Corenth, ME
He m. MARY (-) COLLINS, b. ca 1786 MA.

Francis is placed as a son of Jotham 4.67 because of his will that mentions a widowed mother Sarah and that he was probably given his mother's maden name. No proof has been found.

Francis Horton of Boston, blacksmith, infirm but of sound mind, on 1 Dec. 1832 wrote his will. He gave to his mother, widow Sarah Horton $15; to sister Phebe Taber wife of --- Taber, $5; to sister Dorcas Holiday, wife of Samuel $5; the residue of the estate, both real and personal to friend Ephraim Milton of Boston..."in trust, nevertheless to permit my wife Mary Horton, formerly the wife of one Collins and this whether she may have been legally my wife or otherwise to use, occupy and enjoy such part there of as she may choose"...the rest of the house to be rented and money to be invested for wife's support. At wife's death, residue to mother if alive, if not then equally between brother and sisters and the children of any deceased brother or sister. Signed by Francis Horton, witnessed by Joseph Horry and Jacob Hodge. Probated 18 Aug. 1854 by Ephraim Milton executor. (Suffolk Probate 158:256-58 part 1)

Francis must have recovered from the illness that encourged him to write his will as he was probably the Francis of the following record.

There are probate records in Boston for a Francis Horton of Cornith, ME, blacksmith, with widow Mary, who died before 7 March 1860. The will was proved in Bangor, Penobscot Co, ME. Some land in Boston was sold for $2100 on 18 April 1860. The land was an old house of the NE side of Powers St. and an old house in the rear of 432 Commercial St. Matthew Ritchie of Corinth was executor. (Suffolk Probate 272:242, 297:119, 258:153, 327:359)

The Cornith 1850 census lists a Francis Horton, 65, blacksmith, b. MA with wife Mary 64 b. MA and Maxamilian Shaw, 12 b. MA living with them. This is surely the Francis of the above probate. He is not in any early ME census records. The Boston, Ward 2, 1830 census lists a Francis 40/50 with wife 40/50 and 1 M 15/20 [If this is a son, he must have died before his father wrote his will. He may have been a Collins child.] The 1840 census lists a Francis Horton 50/60 with wife 50/60.

4.87 BENJAMIN HORTON (Benjamin 3.33; David 2.5; Thomas 1.1) was b. 28 May 1749 Milton; d. prob. 2 May 1815 age 66 Boston, bur. in Tomb 14, Granary Burying Ground.

He m.(1)? 3 Oct. 1773, SARAH EMPSON.

He m.(2) MARY, d. 1815+.

The following probate records surely are for the Benjamin who died 2 May 1815 age 66 Boston (b. 1749), who was probably Benjamin 4.87. In the 1790 Boston census, Benjamin had a family of 1M +16, 1M-16 and 5F. The 1800 Boston census has been lost. In 1810 there was a Benjamin on Essex St. with a family of 1M 18/26, 1M +45, 1F +45.

On 15 May 1815 Mary Horton, administrator of the estate of Benjamin Horton, late of Boston, housewright, died intestate, asks that Elizabeth M. Horton of Boston, singlewoman be made administrator. (Suffolk Probate 113:253)

On 26 May 1815 the inventory was returned for Benjamin, carpenter, totaling $87.42. It consisted mostly of household goods but of interest are: 1 pair of knee buckles, 3 silver teaspoons and half a pew in the Universal Meeting House. (Ibid. 113:264)

On 26 June 1815, Elizabeth M. Horton reports a note of hand against Richard Thayer for $270.00 that is considered bad. She also asks to sell all of personal estate. This was approved. (Ibid. 113:306)

5.52 JOHN HORTON (Nathaniel 4.18; John 3.3, 2.2; Thomas 1.1) was b. ca 1762 Scituate, RI; d. 16 May 1842 Stephentown, Rensselaer Co., NY.
He m. 17 Sept. 1782 Little Hoosick, now Berlin, NY, MERCY BRIGGS; b. ca 1765; d. 10 Dec. 1845 Stephentown.

John was an early settler in the north part of Stephentown, possibly as early as 1780. He was in the Stephentown census from 1800 until his death, except in 1810 when he was not listed in the census.

The Revolutionary War pension files, W19806, provided the clue as to his identity, their death dates, and other vital information on their lives. (See Volume I, p.246.)

John enlisted in 1777 as a substitute for William Calwell for 6 months, with service at Warwick, RI, under Capt. Abraham Tourtillott, Col. Cornwell. In 1778 he enlisted under Capt. Olney in a regiment commanded by Col. Archibald Crary for 1 year, with service at Providence, Bristol, Wickford, Fall River, and was in the Battle of RI, then in winter quarters in Tiverton. In 1779 he enlisted under Capt. Allen for 6 months in VT, in the service of Col. Ethan Allen, stationed at Skeensborough part of the time, and at Pittsford and Castleton. In 1780 he enlisted under the same captain for 9 months under Col. Ira Allen at Castleton and was appointed Sergant. He was discharged in 1781. Certified 5 Sept. 1832.

John's brother, Abel served under Col. Olney and in the VT Militia. Abel went to Danby, VT about 1780, so most likely, they went together. Probate records show an Asa Horton in Danby at the same time, probably another brother.

John received a pension of $90 per year beginning 27 April 1833. After his death, Mercy had to prove they were married, and the files contain several depositions to this effect. One from Carey Briggs, another by Abigail Corey of Hancock, MA that she had been at the wedding; James Jones, age 68, of Stephentown said he had known Mercy since he was a child, living near her father before 1790; Comfort Shaw, age 70, deposed Mercy had worked for his father before her marriage.

The most inportant deposition was by Moses Rounds of Stephentown, age 76. He said he had known John since he (Moses) was age 10, and until John's death, had always lived in the same town. John and Mercy were married in 1782 and till John's death they lived together as man and wife. John died in May 1842 and he had gone to the funeral. John was a pensioner. "That this despondent is cousin to the said John Horton knows that the said John Horton had several children, the oldest a son by the name of Justus who is if living is 58 or 59 years, old dosn't know the given names of the girls but the youngest son John is a man of a family living in the town of Berlin, county and state aforsaid." Signed by Moses Rounds, 1 Sept. 1843.

Moses Rounds was a first cousin to John Horton and the son of Joseph and Mary (Horton 4.14) Round.

Mary received a pension of $43 a year beginning 16 May 1842. At her death, the papers report only 2 living children, John Horton and Mary Roberts. I could not find a Mary Roberts in the 1850 Stephentown census, but there were Roberts families.

John was in the Stephentown census as follows: 1800 M 1 0/10, 1 10/16, 1 26/45, F 4 0/10, 3 10/16, 1 16/26, 1 +45 (prob. an error); 1810 (not found); 1820 M 1 +45, F 1 0/10, 1 10/16, 1 26/45, 1 +45; 1830 M 1 60/70, F 1 60/70; 1840 M 1 70/80, F 1 70/80, with John Horton 78 a SAR pensioner; 1850 only son John Horton age 50.

5.86 ISAAC HORTON (Benjamin 4.23; Thomas 3.4; John 2.2; Thomas 1.1) was b. April 1759; d. 1811-1840.

He m. ca 1779 LOVISA BROWN, b. 1757-1758 Providence, RI; d. 1857.

The information in Volume I p. 227 will not be repeated here.

In addition to the information I have collected on the descendants of Isaac Horton, Ruth W. Binkley, 10414 Peacock Hill Avenue, Gig Harbor, WA 98335 has compiled all of the information, known to her, on the descendants of Isaac 5.86, hereafter Binkley MS. She has had correspondence from: a professional genealogist searching Berkshire Co. MA records; Perry Horton and the Horton Family Association, Sally Cook Fisk of Buffalo, NY, Zona MacBeath Milmore of Mariposa, CA, Lorraine Kimble, Green Lake Co. coordinator for the WI State Old Cemetery Society, Barbara Cullings of Las Vegas, NV, Keith Frutiger of Rochester, MN, Robert C. Jones of Lake Park, FL and Lyman

B. Horton of Oconomowoc, WI and others. Ruth is willing to serve as a "clearing-house" for information on the descendants of Isaac 5.86.

Lovisa Brown Horton's ancestry has completely evaded all of the researchers. She is thought to have been born ca 1757 Providence, RI, but no record has been found. Some records state that she was doubtless of the Rehoboth family whose ancestry is traced to the Mayflower. If so, she must have been from the same branch of the Brown family as her daughter-in-law, Bebe Brown who was a 7th generation descendant of Mayflower passengers, John and Elizabeth (Tilley) Howland. Ruth says: "Some records show that Lovisa moved to Whitesboro, NY in 1819 and resided with her daughter, Mary/Polly Crane, and died in Oneida Co. before 1850.

I found only 2 deeds where Isaac purchased his land in Berkshire Co. It was hoped that these deeds would show him of Scituate, RI, or some relationship to Benjamin, but they did not. If he purchased land before he moved to Lanesboro, the deeds were not recorded.

On 27 Dec. 1796 Wolcott Hubbell of Lanesboro, Berkshire Co., MA for £80, sold to Isaac Horton of Cheshire, Berkshire Co., yeoman, 50 acres of land in Cheshire, it being half of lot #16. The land was formerly in Lanesboro, in the south part of the 2nd division, and bounded by Stephen Whipple on the east and by Brooks Mason on the south and west. Signed by Wolcott Hubbell, witnessed by Stoddard Williams. (Berkshire Co. deeds 6:165)

On 31 Dec. 1801 James W. Smith of New York City, for $250, sold to Isaac Horton of Cheshire, a 1100 acre tract or gore of land in Dalton; formerly called Gageborough, a gore of land between Dalton and Lanesborough; starting at the hemlock tree at the point of the gore.... Signed by James W. Smith, witnessed by John Willson and Isaac Havens. (Ibid. 7:335)

The Berkshire Co. probate record for the settlement of the personal estate of Isaac Horton, dated 9 March 1815, show Lovisa Horton, widow, as administrix, and lists 4 sons, Isaac, Asahel, Benjamin, and Jesse, and 5 daughters, Lucy, Polly, Lovisa, Amanda, and Achsah. All are mentioned in some Berkshire Co. deeds.

On 15 Sept. 1836, Jesse Horton of Hanover, Chautauqua Co., NY, sold some land to Lovicy Horton of Deerfield, Oneida Co., NY. Notarized 9 Jan 1828 Oneida Co.; witnessed by Asahel Horton and Benjamin Horton. [Lovicy must have been Jesse's mother as his sister, Lovisa m. 1804 Norman Mason.] (Binkley MS)

On 9 March 1829, Asahel Horton and wife Bebe of Bridgewater, Asa Crane and wife Mary of Deerfield, all of Oneida Co., NY, Norman Mason and wife Lucy [error, should read Lovisa] of Middlefield, Otsego Co., NY, -?- Gilbert and wife Lucy of Montgomery Co., NY and Alvah Wood and wife Achsah of Martinsburgh, Lewis Co., NY, quit-claimed some land to Lovisa Horton of Deerfield, Oneida Co., NY. (Ibid.)

On 3 March 1831, Lovicy Horton, Edmund Clark and wife Amanda, all of Deerfield, Oneida Co., NY, Isaac Horton of Clearfield Co., PA and Benjamin Horton of Hanover, Chautauqua Co., NY, sold some land to Benjamin Whipple of Cheshire, Berkshire Co., MA. Notarized 1 Feb. 1831 Chautauqua Co., NY, 3 March 1831 Fox Twp., Clearfield Co., PA, 21 March 1831 Oneida Co., NY. (Ibid.)

SIXTH GENERATION

6.1 NEHEMIAH HORTON (Nehemiah 5.2; Jonathan 4.3, 3.2; John 2.2; Thomas 1.1) was b. 31 Oct. 1780 Brattleboro, VT VR; d. 1850+ prob. Gerry, Chautauqua Co., NY.
He m. LUCY NEWTON, b. ca 1782; d. 1860+ prob. Gerry, NY; daughter of Samuel and Anna (Winchester) Newton who moved from Paxton, MA to Marlborough, VT and then to Brattleboro, VT.

See Volume I p.113 for information previously printed on this family.

Some time between 1810 and 1820, Nehemiah moved his family to Gerry, Chautauqua Co. NY. The county history mentions Nehemiah Horton as an early settler. The first town meeting was held in the home of Calvin Cutting and Nehemiah Horton was choses as "Sealer". Several of the other first settlers were from Windham Co., VT.

Nehemiah was in the Gerry census as follows: 1820: M 2 0/10, 1 10/16, 1 26/45; F 2 0/10, 2 10/16, 1 26/45. 1830: M 1 10/15, 1 15/20, 1 20/30, 1 40/50; F 2 10/15, 1 15/20, 1 20/30, 1 40/50. 1840: M 1 15/20 [prob. farm hand as not in family 1830 or 1850], 1 50/60; F 1 50/60. 1850: N. Horton, 69 b. VT, farmer, Lucy 68 b. VT, Electa Crandall 39 b. VT, and her 4 Crandall children as below.

In 1830 census, the next name after Nehemiah's was William Horton with: M 1 20/30, F 2 0/5, 1 10/15, 1 20/30.

In the 1840 census, listed right after Nehemiah were: Charles D. Horton, M 1 20/30, F 1 15/20 and Asa W. Horton, M 1 20/30, F 1 15/20 each with one engaged in agriculture. Also in Gerry there was a Samuel Horton with: M 1 30/40 F 2 0/5, 1 5/10, 1 20/30, one in agriculture.

Three other Hortons were found in the 1850 Gerry census: Thomas R. 15 b. NY living with Reuben Shepardson 59 b. VT and Roxy Shepardson 55 b. VT.; and Charlotte Horton 10 b. NY and Alvra Horton 7 b. NY living with Isaac Cobb 55 b. MA and his 3 Cobb children

In 1860 Lucy age 77 b. VT with $600 personal property was living with Rufus Pratt, 36 b. VT, farmer with $1200 real estate and $200 personal property; Cynthia Pratt 39 b. NY [b. 1821, pos. one of the unnamed dau.]; Hershel U. Pratt 17 and Merreck B. Pratt 12.

Also in the 1860 Gerry census I found: Charlotte Horton 18 b. NY, a servant in the Salsbury home; and Alonzo/Arkinzo Horton, 36 b. NY, farmer with $3000 real estate and $1000 personal property, Rebecka 34 b. PA, with children b. NY: Electa S. 7, Horatio W. 6, Worthey D. 4 and David 7 days as of June 9.

From the above data it appears that Nehemiah was the Nehemiah Jr. of the 1810 Brattleboro census if he had two farm hands, 1 16/20 and the other +45, a hired girl 10/16, and an older woman in his family. These could have been a brother and sister and the woman could have been his mother, as she was not listed with Nehemiah, Sr. (see I:62) We can now construct the following probable family.

6.18 THIAL/RIAL/ROYAL HORTON (Asa 5.3; Jonathan 4.3, 3.2; John 2.2; Thomas 1.1) was b. 6 March 1794, recorded Charlotte, VT VR, but prob. b. Berkshire Co., MA.
He m.(1) by 1815 ANNA MONGER/MOSIER; b. 1790-94; prob. d. 1830-40; dau. of Anna (-) Monger/Mosier, sister of Sylvester Monger/Mosier.
He m.(2) by Nov. 1847, POLLY, b. ca 1792 NY.

Mrs. Joyce B. Hory of Snyder, NY has done consideable research on this branch of the family and has only found the name Thial in the copy of the Vermont VR's (filed as Thial in Montpelier). I have a xerox copy of the original Charlotte town records and on careful examination, the name is more likely Rial. Mrs. Hory has found him as Rial and also Royal. He appears to have lived in Lysander, Onondaga Co., NY until about 1847-48, and the disapears. He had married, by ca 1815, Anna Monger/Mosier, dau. of Anna (-) Monger/Mosier and sister of Sylvester Monger/Mosier who's estate settlement papers in 1815 Charlotte, VT name a sister Anna Horton.

The Chittenden District Probate Court, Burlington, file #117, for Asa Horton, shows a Royal Horton named, along with Asa and Lovel, as accepting service: citation for heris of estate of Asa 22 Nov. (no year stated). Welcome Horton was named as a minor heir above age 14 on 22 Nov. 1811. Royal Horton bought 15 acres at the administrator's sale on 2 June 1812 for $92.

On 16 April 1813, Royal Horton of Charlotte, sold to Kelly Ranslow, for $200, 15 acres 28 rods of lot 31 second division. Witnessed by Eliphal Gillett and Phineas Alexander. (Charlotte deeds 6:130)

Royal and Anna Horton of Lysander, Onondaga Co., NY, sold (by letter of attorney to Asa Horton) 3-4 acres in Charlotte "...land we have by legacy formerly owned by Sylvester Moger of Charlotte..." 13 Feb. 1817. (Charlotte Town Records 6:321)

The first recorded land purchased by Royal was lot 49 in Lysander, recorded 27 Feb. 1832 book WW p.201. This lot was sold 26 Nov. 1847 by Royal Horton and Polly his wife. (Ibid. 93:210)

The Lysander School Dist. #3 in 1834 reported 3 children between the ages of 5-15 for Royal Horton.

Royal was in the Lysander census as follows: 1820 (near Asa and Lovel): M 1 0/10, 1 26/45, F 2 0/10, 1 26/45; 1830: M 1 10/15, 1 30/40, F 2 10/15, 1 30/40; 1840: M 1 15/20, 1 20/30, 1 40/50, F 1 0/5, 2 5/10, 1 30/40; 1850: New Albion, Cattaraugus Co., NY house #78-79: Royal 56 b. MA, farmer; Polly 58 NY; Hiram Youngs 30 NY, farmer, $960 real estate; Harriet Youngs 30 NY; Mary A. Youngs 7; Edmund Youngs 2; Hiram Warren, 12; and Amanda Youngs. Nearby in house #72-73 lived John Horton 33, NY, farmer, no doubt Royal's son. No Hortons were found in the 1860 and 1870 New Albion census.

The older woman in the family in 1840 is not the right age to be either Anna or Polly, and the 3 girls can not be explained. Royal did have 2 sisters the right age to be the woman b. 1800-10. One of his sisters, and her children, could have been with him when the census was taken, or perhaps a housekeeprer. The male age 20/30 was probably a hired hand.

Mrs. Hory found a John or R. John Horton who bought lot 49 in Lysander in 1847, the lot Royal had owned. He sold this the same year with his wife Angeline, no doubt in preparation for the move to New Albion with his father.

He m. 22 Feb. 1852 Dubuque, IA, ELIZABETH BYRNE; b. 19 March 1834 King Co., Ireland; d. 1923 age 89 Spokane, WA; dau. of Joseph Byrne.

George was only 12 at the time of his father's death. He worked out with his uncle (name unknown), was beaten and ran away, back to his mother. George then got a job at 25 cents a day to replace his mother's barn that had burned down. About 1838, he went to Chicago, across the Great Lakes on a passenger raft. He didn't like Chicago, so he went to live, between Dubuque and Davenport, IA, with his half brother, David.

Joseph Byrne had inherited the family property in Tallymore, Kings Co., Ireland. After a visit to the United States in about 1838, he sold his property and moved to his borther's eatate, Lotus Level, in Frederick, MD. Then the family moved to near Galina, IL where they contracted malaria. Elizabeth knew U.S. Grant there. Later she lived with her sister, Mary Hurley in Dubuque.

George decided to go on to the Willamette Valley, OR, sold his farm, but decided against it after an Indian massacre. With 2 children, Joseph Elisha and Frances, they moved to Crimina, near Preston, Filmore Co., MN. There Martha and Sam were born. About 1897 they moved to Spring Valley.

In 1900 they were living in Spring Valley, Fillmore Co., MN. His birth was listed as April 1818 age 82, b. PA, father b. MA and mother b. NY; his wife Elizabeth was b. March 1835 Ireland with parents b. Ireland; and they had a granddaughter, Frankie Washburn with them. Elizabeth said they had been married 49 years and had had 4 children with 3 alive. Daughter Martha Elizabeth Washburn lived in the next house.

6.111j JOHN HORTON (John 5.52; Nathaniel 4.18; John 3.3, 2.2; Thomas 1.1) was b. ca 1800 prob. Stephentown, Rensselaer Co., NY; d. 1870+.
He m. by 1821 CAHTERINE, b. ca 1804 NY; d. 1870+.

The Revolutionary War pension files show that John, Jr. was of Berlin, NY in 1845. There was a John, Jr. listed beside John, Sr. in the 1830 and 1840 Stephentown census. [There was a John D. Horton, 57, b. NY, lumberman, with wife Calistia in the 1850 Berlin census, along with seveal other younger Horton families that could be sons of that John D.] However, the family of John of Stephentown, in 1850, fits perfectly with the family of John, Jr. of 1830 and 1840, so I believe John of Stephentown is the son of John 5.52.

John, Jr. was in the Stephentown census as follows: 1830: M 1 0/5, 1 20/30, F 2 0/5, 1 20/30. 1840: M 1 0/5, 1 15/20, 1 30/40, F 1 5/10, 1 15/20, 1 30/40, 1 30/40, with 2 in agriculture. 1850: John Horton, 50 b. NY, farming with $400 real estate; Catherine 46 b. NY; Hiram 28 b. NY farming; John T. 12 b. NY, Catherine 7 b. NY and Phebe M. 4 b NY. 1860: John 65 farmer; Catherine, 55, domestic, $450 real estate and $250 personal property; Hiram 40 and Phebe 15. 1870: John 66 farm laborer, Catherine 55, and Hiram 40 with none able to read or write. (This may account for the discrepancies in their ages.) They were not in the 1880 Stephentown or Berlin census.

He was in the 1800 Orrington census with M 1 26/45; F 1 0/10, 2 16/26 and in 1810 with M 1 0/10, 1 16/26, 1 26/45; F 2 0/10, 1 10/16, 1 26/45. A first child, Temperance, b. 5 Oct. 1799, is given in some records. I believe this is an error by 20 years of the mother's birth. They had only 1 child in 1800, and she was born 3 months after Temperance, which is impossible.

He m. 6 Jan. 1828 Plainfield, CT VR, ELMIRA STARKWEATHER, of Plainfield; b. ca 1805 NY; d. 1850+.

He is placed as a son of Jonathan P. Horton because Jonathan was in Canterbury in 1823 and Plainfield in 1830, neighboring towns. Also, Jonathan's son William, probable brother of James, married Laura Starkweather, probable sister of Elmira.

James was in the Plainfield census as follows: 1830: M 1 0/5, 1 20/30, F 1 20/30. 1840: M 2 10/15, 1 20/30 (error?), F 1 0/5, 2 5/10, 1 30/40. In 1850 of Westerly, RI: James S. 42 b. MA shoemaker, Elmira 45 b. NY and the 7 children as below.

In 1880 they were living on Main Street in Westerly, RI with 2 children, Albert and John. They had Nancy Fielding, mother, 70 b. RI with them. HORTON INDEX

The names in the body of the book have been indexed according to the individuals' personal number, i.e. William 7.0016, John 7.0509, etc. All spouses, their parents and other persons mentioned in the text are indexed under the personal number of the head of the family.

Names in Appendix D, Appendix E, and Appendix F are indexed by page number. Any number preceded by a "p." is a page number.

The index includes the year of birth for all bearing the Horton name. In cases where the exact date is not known, an estimation has been made. All dates ending with a dash (-) as 181- are estimates based on the known data. Some of these estimates may be in error by many years. The birth years for the names in Appendix D have been replaced by the page number the person appeared on in volume one.
